Daly City, 1962—A Year Of Events

Dozens of top news events filled the pages of the Times-Record in 1962.

It snowed in January.

There was a shooting on Thornton Beach. Four firemen were charged with conspiring to burn a warehouse.

The city held the line on taxes and at the same time managed to erect some impressive public works projects, including a new clubhouse, new pumphouse, San Diego street water main and parking lots at two city parks.

Chamber of Commerce Frank Curry's men pushed for a better bus transit system to accommodate travelers in old Daly City and Westlake. Several new apartments were constructed in Daly City and a new shopping center at St. Francis Square opened to customers.

High school district tax rates were raised from $1.35 to $2.

A new bank was formed and an improvement district was launched in Broadmoor.

Finally, at the end of the year, the city began to look with interest at annexation as some 600 acres of Christen land on the southern boundaries of the city were sold to a development corporation.

January, 1962

The botanical problems of the Westlake Improvement Association continued last week when the association filed a new suit against James and Mabel Terry for removing a palm tree from in front of their home at 1055 87th street in Daly City.

The Chamber of Commerce reported that 88 families in which there were 314 children, enjoyed a happy Christmas, thanks to the community-backed "Operation Santa Claus" drive.

The city began construction of a new $20,000 clubhouse at Lincoln Park, Brunswick and Acton streets, formerly called an "eyesore" with rundown fences and broken asphalt.

On January 2, seven Congolese teachers visited Jefferson schools.

A ten-month search for 14-year-old Randy Cobb, 163 Mariposa drive, Daly City, ended January 7 when he flew home to meet his parents. He had been staying in Arkansas.

More than $1,000 in contributions were sent to "Operation Help" to Box 4 at the Daly City post office for John Coleman, a Daly City policeman, and his family, who suffered the loss of furniture and personal effects in a fire at Hillside boulevard on December 18.

Snowballs made news in Daly City January 21. Freezing and near-freezing temperatures made it the most enduring snow fall here in this century. School kids were having snowball fights and skiing at Westmoor High School.

February, 1962

A $16,000,000 construction project was well underway at the Southern Hills housing development on the northeast corner of Daly City, overlooking the Cow Palace. Grading job was called the most difficult in the Bay Area, due to the steep terrain.

The Jefferson Union High School district won its tax election February 7, 5,022 to 4,051—a majority of 971 votes. Thus the high school district tax rate jumped from $1.35 to $2.

Mud slides and freak accidents caused by a heavy wind and rainstorm February 8 and 9 caused mudslides at the Tom Stanghellini residence in St. Francis Heights. Seven homes in St. Francis Heights were declared in jeopardy.

An avalanche of mud flowed down a steep slope February 15 behind the Joseph Payne residence at 1919 Nimitz drive in Broadmoor and caused Payne and his family to evacuate the residence. The county called an emergency and sent workers to clear away the mud.

Ten candidates filed for the April 10 municipal elections for three seats on the city council. They included incumbents Robert St. Clair, Edward J. Dennis and Michael DeBernardi; Fred Walker, Thomas Noonan, Edward P. O'Haire, Paris Simmons, Sheldon Priezant, Harry R. Farber and George Kirchhubel.

Daly City Hi Fi Club activities were suspended for a month in the wake of an accidental stabbing which occurred at a February 14 dance at the War Memorial Community Center.

Six Pacifica youths were apprehended after making two phone calls to Terra Nova High School, informing the administration that bombs were planted and set to go off.

Daly City police Lieut. Dave Hansen and Inspector James Bergstrom, on February 27, nabbed Joseph Rivera, 28, and John Rivera, 25, brothers, both of 1210 Fell sreet, wanted for approximately 200 burglaries in San Mateo County.

Police were investigating the possibility of arson in the early morning fire in an abandoned house at 273 Niantic on February 22. The building, destroyed by the blaze, had been used as a clubhouse for a college fraternity.

Bruce Selmi, 26-year-old son of a former Daly City mayor, was found dead in the family car on February 26 in San Francisco, apparently from an overdose of narcotics.

Progress Report

The Year 1962 In South San Francisco

South San Francisco this past year welcomed several new industries and businesses and started the ball rolling with capital improvement projects.

The Spruce avenue improvement program began. A new $900,000 Marina project was almost completed and a Master Plan was submitted unofficially with plans to implement it underway.

South San Francisco received the new Golden Gate Produce Terminal and the Holiday Inn, along with numerous new industries. The city undertook for the first time a beautification program to include public areas, divider strips and entrance to the city. City hall was renovated for the first time in almost 40 years. A downtown walkway was constructed.

Next Year

The following fiscal year calls for construction of a library, consideration of adoption of the Master Plan, construction of an arts and culture center and start of the second phaze of the Marina project with picnic areas, beach and nine-hole golf course.

Also slated for 1963 is construction and installation of some very important storm sewer projects, including Spruce avenue culvert, Evergreen culvert and 12-mile creek outlet.

Thursday Delivery

Your Westlake Times and Daly City Record is being delivered Thursday this week because of the Christmas holiday. The same schedule will prevail next week in order that our employes may enjoy New Year's Day with their families.

City Mgr. Firm On Layoff

Daly City manager Edward Frank told the personnel board last week that city carpenter Reginald Calvert was laid off because the city engineer saw no need for a carpenter and made no request for funds for such skills.

The board was siting as a board of revue, to hear a complaint by the Daly City Employees Union on Calvert's lay-off. Another hearing is set for January 10 at city hall, 75 Wellington avenue, at 7:30 p. m.

The union contends the layoff is not proper and the procedure is not proper, and that Calvert, an employee of 4½ years, should have been placed in another job within the city.

Union officials felt that Calvert's layoff would set a precedent to cut off seniority rights for older classified employees of the city.

City manager Frank added further that during the 1961-62 fiscal year a deficit of $24,000 was experienced because salaries of maintenance personnel exceeded the value of work done.

"There is no need for a carpenter at present," he said.

"We have no money budgeted for his salary and there is no alternative to his being laid off."

Attorney Jess Abramovitz, representing the employees union, said the union feels the city owes the man another job if he is qualified. City manager Frank said another job was offered, and when Calvert didn't accept the offer he was laid off.

Rash Of Holdups, 5 Are Arrested

Five Daly City Men, who reportedly pulled four holdups in Daly City in the past week, were arrested by Daly City police Wednesday morning.

They are also wanted for an additional seven holdups in San Francisco.

Held for questioning were Harry Harvey, 32; Gary Andres, 20; Carl Johanson, 21; Sheldon Dixon, 21, and Rodney Ford.

Police said four have admitted to thefts at Alberigi's Texaco Station, Standard Stations, Inc., Westlake Market and Best Way Market.

Holdups also occurred at the Mission Bell Motel and the Safeway Market in Broadmoor.

A pair of nervous bandits held up Alberigi's Texaco service station on December 19 and made off with $456. The robbers entered the station at about 10:30 p. m., according to Don Alberidi, 21, 363 Irvington street, an attendant.

He told officers one pulled a gun from his belt and said "this is a holdup. Give me your money." One was short, stocky and blond and the other was tall and husky.

Robert Fessenden, 571 San Diego avenue, owner-operator of the Westlake Market, 301 Miriam street, was surprised by a fleet-footed young man December 21 as Fessenden was walking home with the day's receipts, estimated at $300. Fessenden closed his market at 7:10 p. m., removed the contents of the cash register, placed it in a sack and closed the store, then began walking to his home, two blocks away. A youth, described as a Negro, ran past him and grabbed the money sack from Fessenden's hand.

A youth with long, black hair, wearing cream-colored slacks and jacket and brandishing a hunting knife, threatened a clerk and made off with $41 on December 22 from the Mission Bell Motel, 6838 Mission street. Police reported the clerk was surprised by the man, who waited until everyone had left and then brandished a knife. He fled on foot.

Two armed men took $700 from the Best Way Market, 497 Bellevue street, December 25 after surprising employe Wilfred Chan and the owner, William Wong. The two men held guns at all times on the victims and fled on foot after taking the money.

The robbers forced Chan from outside the market into the building and marched Wong into the office where the money was on the desk.

A blond-haired man wearing an ill-fitting suit held up Standard Stations, Inc., 7198 Mission street, on December 26 and fled on foot with $25. Station attendant Walt Pickering, 19, told officers the man walked into the station, said "Cold night out, isn't it?" and pointed a snub-nosed revolver in Pickering's face.

Broadmoor police Wednesday were seeking four dark-skinned men who stole $225 from the Safeway Market in Broadmoor. Officers said the prominent holdup suspect was 6-1 tall and was carrying a knife.

'First Days' Theme Urged By Sen. Dolwig

State Senator Richard J. Dolwig of San Mateo County is urging all citizens, city officials and service organizations to utilize the "California First Days" theme at meetings and other functions. The last three days of 1961 and Jan. 1, 1963, have been set aside by Gov. Edmund G. Brown to commemorate California as the most populous state.

Senator Dolwig, who is a member of the governor's official state-wide celebration committee, said San Mateo county residents can be proud of their part played in making California "Number One" in the United States.

"San Mateo county is directly responsible for several of California's 'firsts' other than population," Senator Dolwig said. "Primarily in agricultural leadership such as artichokes, brussel sprouts and bedding plants."

He also mentioned that San Mateo County has long been the nation's leader in many types of cut flowers, including carnation and stock crops.

"San Mateo County's leaders and citizens," Dolwig concluded, "can also be proud of the manner in which they are solving the many problems arising from a population growth unprecedented in the history of the United States."

Daly City Milestone

Year of Progress

Looking ahead and behind, Mayor Joseph Verducci of Daly City can boast a year of progress.

Highways Big Items For Pacifica In '63

Highway projects will be big items next year on the calendar for City of Pacifica, according to city manager Carl Baldwin.

1962 Accomplishments

This past year the city worked on the city-county highways project and developed a plan for long-range development of Pacifica's major thoroughfares. The result will be a cross county lateral connection of Sharp Park road extending across Westborough and ultimately through South San Francisco and on to the Bayshore freeway.

The city in 1962 initiated a study to be carried out by the United States Corps of Engineers for beach and cliff erosion.

A $1,250,000 city-wide sewer project was brought to completion with installation of sewers and treatment plant.

The city finalized plans with the state division of highways for the first increment of Pacifica freeway to Fairway Park.

A summer swimming program was conducted in the summer for the first time.

The city obtained clearance for use of a portion of underground facilities ot the Army Nike site for a secondary seat of government and for civil defense and disaster purposes.

1963 Projects

In the upcoming year, city hall will be concerned with the freeway system and early adoption of Route 229 Freeway alignment.

The council is to set up a drainage commitee to solve city-wide drainage problems and plans for financing of their solution.

A citizens committee will study plans for a community center with the possibility of ultimately building a permanent municipal facility.

Baldwin said he expects a rapid pace to continue on subdivision development both on the Fairmont development and developments at the south end of the city.

DALY CITY RECEIVES $126,326 IN SALES TAX COLLECTIONS

Sales and use tax collections for July, August and September, amounting to $135,708, have been made to Colma and Daly City, according to George R. Reilley, chairman of the State Board of Equalization. Daly City received $126,326 and Colma $9,382 as part of $1,693,566 distributed to all cities and the county of San Mateo.

Other nearby cities' shares were: Brisbane $22,323, Pacifica $26,406, South San Francisco $206,145, Millbrae $36,612, San Bruno $66,787.

The county's share was $296.081. Statewide, the collections were nearly seven per cent above last year's level.

Based on the one per cent levy which cities receive, Daly City had $12,632,600 in taxable sales. Using a figure 25 per cent for non-taxable sales, such as food, a gross sales of more than $17,000,000 for the quarter.

The one per cent levy on third-quarter business yielded $49,250,255 for California's cities, $9,832,257 for her counties, and $4,297,976 for the City and County of San Francisco. Los Angeles County and its cities received slightly more than two-fifth of the total.

The revenue was distributed to cities and counties in two installments. Advance payments in November totaled 54 million dollars; final payments this month amounting to nine and one-third million dollars made up the balance.

The sales tax is now administered uniformly throughout the state since the levy became effective in Siskiyou County on Jan. 1, 1962.

Reilly pointed out that the First Equalization District, comprising the seven central coastal counties from San Francisco south to San Luis Obispo, received $10,206,000, or 5.8 per cent more than a year ago. Three of these counties — San Benito, San Mateo and Santa Clara — received substantially more than they did a year ago.

DALY CITY BLOOD BANK DAY JANUARY 18

Daly City Blood Bank Day has been scheduled for Friday, January 18. Civic, social and fraternal organizations of all types, as well as individuals, are expected to participate in this community-wide endeavor.

Blood Bank Day provides Daly City residents a convenient opportunity to donate blood to the Peninsula Blood Bank, one of the oldest and finest in the country.

Credits for donated blood can be reserved by the donors for the use of any organization, individual, or group. If the donor chooses, he may donate his credits for the use of fellow residents of the community who are in need, or for the use of the armed forces.

Blood Bank Day is a once-a-year affair. According to Mayor Joseph Verducci, who is heading up this year's drive, the program deserves the support of all qualified donors who, when they give, will not only be helping others but will be giving themselves a measure of security in the event of some unforeseen illness or tragedy.

Mayor Verducci asked that Daly City residents look for further publicized information on Blood Bank Day. He asks citizens to plan now to give a few minutes of their time to this worthy program.

DC's Project — 'Operation Santa Claus'

By GARY NIVER

This is a story about Christmas. A very unique story about Christmas. It is a tale about Christmas in a town called Daly City . . . a town which is often accused of having no identity because of its proximity to the Big City.

And this is a story which refutes the above statement to some extent. It is a story about a city which rallies together, opens its heart, and takes care of some of its unforunate and proud residents.

It is a heard-rendering story in which a community gets together in a true Christmas present and plays Santa Claus.

The name of the game is "Operation Santa Claus."

And it excludes nobody. Everybody participates—from the little tyke collecting canned goods on a cold, foggy morn and the two teenagers whose walk three miles to a fire station to give their coveted transistor radios, to the friendly merchant who donates his time and money.

Also included in the array of contributors are various civic groups, such as the Chamber of Commerce, the Junior Chamber of Commerce, the Daly City recreation department, the Daly City schools and the Daly City fire department.

Co-chairman of the annual event are Fire Chief Elmer Kennedy and Peter Markovich, manager of the Chamber of Commerce.

The story actually began some months ago when the Daly City fire department began collecting old and tattered toys. Spare time was spent renovating these toys and the fire stations began resembling Santa's Workshop as Christmas drew close.

And over at the recreation centers in the city, a contest was initiated to see how much canned-food they could collect. The equipment closets soon began looking like supermarkers.

Money is also collected from various organizations. This is used to buy toys and turkeys for indigent families.

One group of firemen, under the direction of Captain Bob Greenstrand, built 245 baby cribs.

Names of families having financial difficulties are gathered and the scene is set for "Operation Santa Claus."

Last Sunday night a multitude of trucks and station wagons, all volunteered by Daly City residents, rolled out of Fire Station No. 5. Their destination was unknown. They had street numbers and at these numbers they would leave a heaping box of groceries and a nice, fat turkey.

And last Sunday morning, Santa Claus and his reindeer rolled out of Station 5 in the form of trucks loaded with toys for the youngsters who are having a rather lean Christmas.

The bell is rung. The door opened, and a "Merry Christmas" extended by the truck-driver. Sometimes the sight of gratefulness is too much for the deliveryman and he walks back to the truck with tears welling in his eyes. Other times the people act with indifference. The most heart warming sight is to see the faces of the young children light up when the gayly-wrapped toys are delivered. It is something which cannot be expressed in words. It can only be felt.

And operation Santa Claus doesn't seem like a cold-hearted charity excursion. It is more like lending a fellow-neighbor, a fellow-Daly Citian a helping hand when he is having a little rough time. It is a story which symbolizes the true spirit of Christmas.

It is the story of Daly City, a fine city, standing alone like the Star of Bethlehem. A community effort. It is not something tangible realized by the citizenry. But something which can be felt and something unique to the people of Daly City—A community with a real big identity.

Thirty-three per cent of all fatal traffic accidents involved drivers who had been drinking.

SM County Title Joins Forces With First American

The San Mateo County Title Company has joined forces with another pioneer firm in a move to keep pace with the increasing business activity accompanying the growth that has earned California the dubious distinction of being the most populous state in the nation.

Clifton H. Woodhams, president of the San Mateo County Title Company, said that beginning next Tuesday all title insurance policies issued by his company will be guaranteed by the First American Title Insurance & Trust Company of Santa Ana.

The contract for underwriting services will bring together the oldest title companies in San Mateo and Orange counties.

The San Mateo County Title Company had its beginning in 1874 when County Recorder George H. Rice began transcribing land records as a side line to his official duties.

After serving out his term, he continued this work and in 1908 was joined by C. M. Doxsee in the formation of the George H. Rice Abstract Company.

Trophies were awarded all of the finalists. These trophies and the 29 gold bracelets awarded the contestants at the preliminary festivities were donated by the Westlake Jewelers. The six finalists modeled cocktail dresses from H. Liebes of Westlake and Miss Cosma was given her gown as winner.

Banners for the finalists and the winner were printed and donated by the Mission Street Silk Screen Printers. The winner of this event, which will be an annual event, was also awarded the following prizes.

The floats will be assembled for viewing soon after the parade has ended. Directing this phase of the Tournament of Roses activities will be Ralph H. Sampson, post parade chairman, assisted by members of his committee.

Beginning about 1 p. m. on New Year's Day, the site will be open to visitors without charge until 10 p. m. On January 2, the gates will swing open at 9 a. m. and the area will be open to all visitors until 10 p. m.

The association will have a headquarters office at the site. The men in the white suits—tournament committee members — will make announcements over the public address system, conduct the lost and found department and assist in finding lost children and parents.

Programs, pictorial editions and New Year's souvenir editions of the newspapers will be on sale at the site. Mailing facilities will be provided there by a branch of the Pasadena post office. Stamps and special Tournament of Roses cachets will be available at this facility.

Camera enthusiasts will have a field day, being able to photograph the glistening floats against the scenic backdrop of the San Gabriel mountains from special photographic stands erected by the tournament committee. Film may be purchased from concession stands at the post parade area.

Sandwiches and soft drinks will be available at the various stands at Victory Park.

Wheel chairs will be provided for those requiring them, according to Chairman Sampson, who stated further, "the tournament is making every effort to make it possible for everyone to see this magnificent display of still beauty."

Red Cross Celebrates 100th Anniversary

Over 157,000,000 members of the World Red Cross Family, including 300,000 in the area of service covered by the Golden Gate Chapter, will celebrate the start of the Red Cross 100th Anniversary on January 1.

Headlines that tied Red Cross in with the Cuban crisis, thousands of dollars spent to help Bay Area families recover from the October heavy rain damage, millions of dollars spent in aiding victims of the Iranian earthquake show that Red Cross, despite its venerable age, is still very much in the forefront of humanitarian efforts. Yet these facts only tell part of the story, Red Cross does so much for so many millions of people at home and throughout the world, that its contributions could not be cited even through use of the latest IBM equipment.

It was 100 years ago that delegates from 16 European governments gathered in Geneva, Switzerland, and agreed to the forming of an organization "in all countries of Europe for the purpose of having care given by volunteers to the wounded in wartime without distinction of nationality." They had come largely due to the efforts of one man—"the man in the white suit"—Jean Henri Dunant, a Geneva businessman who had seen thousands die on a battlefield near Solferino, Italy, because of lack of adequate care.

The following year, 1864, 24 delegates from 12 governments signed the First Geneva Convention, the basis of Red Cross action in international law, which covered the protection to be given to the wounded and sick of the armed Forces. Since 1864, other Red Cross-inspired conventions have been added to bring under similar protection members of the armed forces at sea (1907), conditions under which prisoners of war may be detained (1929) and (in 1949) a convention for the protection of civilians in this age of total war.

In the past century, the emblem of a red cross on a field of white has silenced guns in countless battles so hat persons who are not active combatants could be aided. Today 90 nations recognize the emblem as a neutral and universal symbol of man's compassion for those in need.

Hilton Hotel Mgr. Hurt In Crash

Peter Wright, 34, manager of the Hilton Inn in Burlingame, suffered serious head injuries December 23 when his sports car smashed into the center divider on the Bayshore Freeway at Linden avenue in South San Francisco.

He was taken to Peninsula Hospital. The crash occurred at about 10:45 p. m.

Local Printer's Son Represents Press In Cuban Exchange

Joe McGowan, Jr., son of Westlake Times composing room employe Joe McGowan, Sr., participated in the delivery of the 53 million dollar ransom goods to Fidel Castro in Havana on Christmas day.

McGowan, an Associated Press newsman with the Miami bureau, was chosen as a pool representative for United States news agencies aboard the ship African Pilot.

The African Pilot is scheduled to sail today from Havana for Fort Everglades, Fla., with McGowan and 1,000 Cuban relatives of the invaders being released as a "Christmas bonus" by Fidel Castro for the ransom.

Young McGowan, who has visited his parents here on several occasions, is a graduate of the University of Wyoming school of journalism and joined the Cheyenne bureau of the Associated Press in 1958. He was transferred to the press association's bureau in Miami two years ago.

Parents of the newsman reside at 1700 El Camino Real in South San Francisco.

The Wall Street Journal observes: "Plainly enough, the President and his advisers believe in expanding the scope and cost of government. But whatever else this course may entail, it cannot be the way to healthy economic expansion. It inevitably means further intrusions into the conduct of business, moving more of private decision-making into the offices of government, reducing the possibilities of profit, savings and investment. In practice it also means heavy federal spending, oppressive taxes and continual deficits."

In 1789, United States senators and representatives received $6 per day as compensation for their services; today they receive $22,500 a year.

May your New Year glow with happiness and prosperity, and may each day be brighter than the one before. Our very best wishes for a joyous '63.

Cub Pack 259 Christmas Party; Awards Given

A visit from Santa Claus was the highlight of the December Pack meeting of Cub Pack 259 on Friday, December 15th.

Den three opened the meeting with the flag ceremony, and Cubmaster Sal Scaduto wished everyone a Merry Christmas and the Cubs gave a "grand hawl" for their Den Mothers.

Pack leaders and Cubs presented gifts, which they put under the Christmas tree for later delivery to the San Francisco Hospital Children's Ward. Included with the gifts will be the tree and decorations made by the Cubs for the hospital.

A new member was welcomed into the Pack, John Roller was presented with his Bobcat pin and all the Cubs and Den Mothers joined John in giving the Cub Scout Promise.

Den Five displayed many examples of their den activities; Thanksgiving turkey centerpieces made of pine cones; Christmas tree decorations of swans, birds, bells and angels. Also featured were Santa and Pig banks made of plastic bleach bottles, hot pot mats, paper mache masks and also Christmas card holders.

Den Four gave an interesting skit about the customs of December religious holidays, rarrated by Barbaara Kasavan and Lois Sherbert, den mothers. Scene 1 was about Chanukah, lighting the Menorah candles with prayers, the dreidle game and a song. Scene 2 showed Christmas tree decorating, Christmas wishes and songs, then off for a sleigh ride. Scene 3 presented the Cubs on their sleigh ride singing songs and suddenly a jolly friend was there with us—Santa Claus. A fine skit, Den Four, and it's hard to beat a finale like that.

Santa had greetings for all and gifts for the children, first the Cubs, followed by the den chiefs, then all the litle sisters and brothers. Wonderful fun, and many thanks to Santa for coming to our meeting.

Committee chairman Mattson explained the awards that Pack 259 received at the recent Scout leaders dinner. He presented our outstanding unit certificate for 1962 Scout-O-Rama participation, with it a ribbon for our Cub flag. Also received was a gold roundup award and a 100 per cent Boys Life subscription certificate. These demonstrate what an enthusiastic and cooperative group of boys and parents we have in Pack 259.

Cubmaster Scaduto called Cubs to the front of the room to receive their achievement awards, as follows:

Wolf award: Dennis MacPherson, Steve Peters.

Bear award: Tim O'Brien, Rodger Mattson and Steve Scaduto.

Lion award: Tim Orton and Steve Mazza.

Gold on wolf: Dennis MacPherson and Steve Peters.

Silver on wolf: Randy Bushner (2) and Bill Sherbert.

Gold on bear: Rodger Mattson and Tim O'Brien.

Silver on bear: Max Bushner (3), Danny Proctor and Mike Peters.

Gold on lion: Ed Swanson, Ron Shapansky (2).

Denner stripes: Tobi Kasavan, Tim O'Brien and Steve Mazza.

Webelo sleeve badge: Mark Fontana and Tim Orton.

One year pin: Bill Jones.

Two year pin: Danny Proctor.

Mr. Mattson wishes to thank everyone for helping with the peanut sale. Results have been very good. Members of Den One were the top salesmen.

Recent activities of our Webelo den include an overnight camping trip with Boy Scout Troop 259 to Turlock National Park on November 24-25. On December 4, the Webelos were guests of Boy Scout Troop 129 at San Mateo council headquarters for Court of Honor ceremonies, and an Eagle Court of Honor for Joe Fernekes, the den chief of the Webelos. Our congratulations to Joe, a former Cub from Pack 259.

Next committee meeting will be Thursday, January 10, at 8 p. m. at Benjamin Franklin School. The January pack meeting will be Friday, January 18, at 8 p. m. at Benjamin Franklin School.

Den Three retired the colors at the close of the meeting.

we wish you a

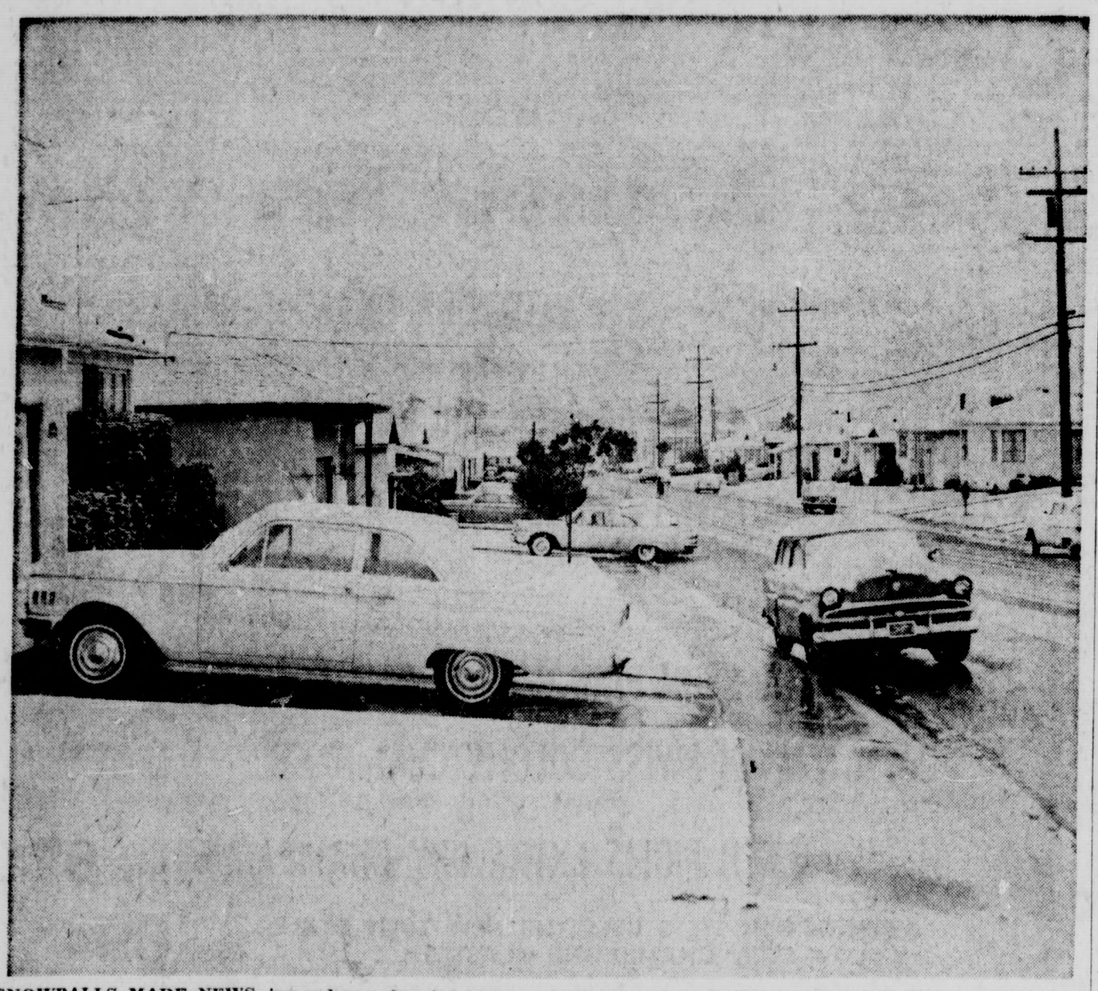
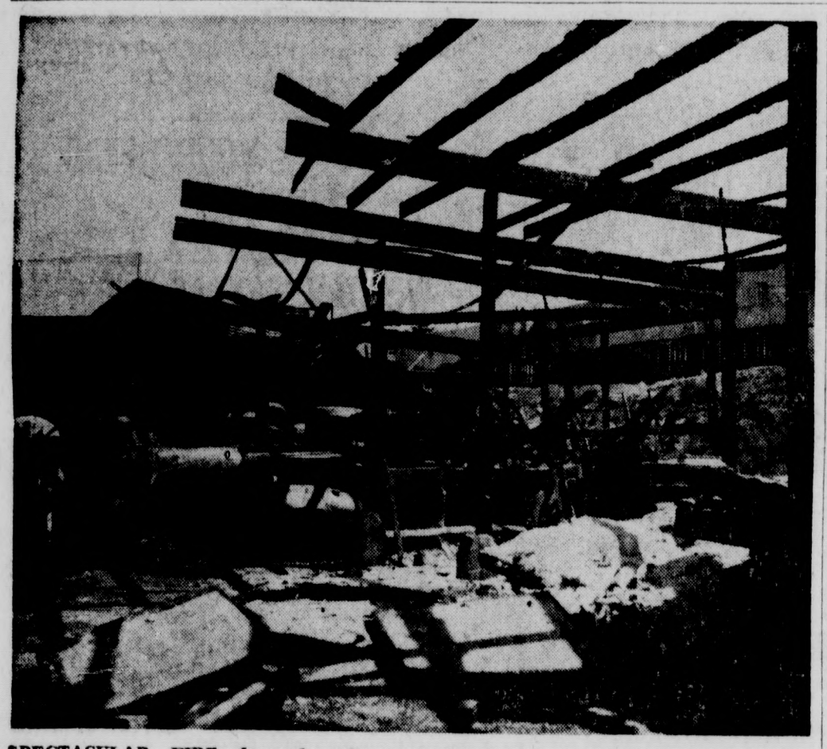
Daly City, 1962—A Year Of Events



SNOWBALLS MADE NEWS in Daly City Jan. 21. Freezing and near freezing temperatures made it the most enduring snow here in this century. School kids were having snowball fights and skiing at Westmoor High.



SPECTACULAR FIRE destroyed five trucks, a shed and roofing material at the Goodwin Roofing Company, on Junipero Serra boulevard.

CEMETERY WORKERS and gravediggers struck the Colma cemeteries March 7. They were asking for the same wage scale given to construction laborers.

Santa Clara Art Gallery To Open

An exhibit of 40 paintings by Dr. Alexis N. Tsvetikov, of Palo Alto, is scheduled for January in de Saisset Art Gallery at the University of Santa Clara.

Recent additions to the gallery collection will go on display at the same time. These include oils by Frank Hosmer, Frank Scalise and Marie von Ridelstein.

The exhibit, which is open to the public without charge, will be from January 5 to February 4. Gallery hours are from 2 to 4:30 p.m. daily, except Mondays.

Dr. Tsvetikov, a scientist as well as a painter, is research assistant in the department of bio-physics at Stanford University. He was born in Russia in 1900 and educated in Kiev, where he studied art and took graphic courses from 1922 to 1926.

He received additional training in watercolor and oil painting in Moscow, where he concentrated on technique and developed his symbolic, ornamental style.

After World War II, he taught painting and graphics in Russia and Germany. He has exhibited in Kiev, Munich and Bamberg, and received numerous awards. In California, he has had shows at San Francisco, Palo Alto and Saratoga (in Villa Montalvo). He served as one of three judges for the annual juried St. Jude Exhibit at de Saisset Gallery in October.

His articles on art and music and also science have appeared in Russian, German and American publications. He was assistant professor in bio-chemistry both at the University of Kiev and the Kaiser Wilhelm Institute in Germany.

Recreational travel in the United States generates estimated expenditures of 18 to 20 million dollars annually, according to the National Automobile Club.

grave diggers struck the Colma cemeteries March 7. They were asking for the same wage scale given to construction laborers.

The majority of produce operators in the San Francisco Produce Market completed arrangements to purchase property and construct a $3,000,000 produce center in South San Francisco, just west of the Bayshore Freeway.

Assistant city manager Phil Brown announced he will become city manager of Arcata on April 16.

The number of burglary reports began to climb and Daly City police claimed they were "buried" in paper work.

Six city projects—resurfacing streets, the Citrus pump house, San Diego street water main, Lincoln Park clubhouse, Northridge Park parking lot and Westlake sump improvement project were completed or nearing completion this week.

April, 1962

City manager Ed Frank, on April 8, suspended four firemen accused of encouraging two friends to burn a warehouse in order to get more firemen on the roster.

The four firemen who lost their jobs in the Lagomarsino warehouse arson case filed a one million dollar damage suit against the two civilians who allegedly put the finger on them.

William Pierson (The Angel) Lopez was fatally wounded with a shotgun April 23 at Thornton Beach. Two youths were wounded by shotgun pellets and one knocked unconscious with a shotgun butt. Charged with the slaying were Larry and Barry Delfino of Daly City.

The Daly City council started proceedings April 23 for a $298,000 assessment district of 296 lots west of the Broadmoor shopping area. Roads are to be paved, sidewalks, curbs, gutters, sreets, lights, sanitary sewers, water mains and fire alarms will be installed.

The Daly City Youth Commission, formed to pinpoint problems which might help solve juvenile delinquency, held its first meeting at the Daly City hall on April 30.

WOMEN'S ACTIVITIES

From A Feminine Viewpoint...

By Mona Baker

Bright Christmas red mats at each place, a sparkling tree in the corner, and in chairs at tables little tots waiting for Santa.

The jingle of bells and suddenly he was there ... Santa Claus had come to the Village Play School. In turn, each little child went up to sing for Santa and receive his gift.

It was a sentimental occasion, too, because the Christmas party for the children was the last one to be held in the old Dunks Street Community Center. During the past 13 years, the old building has echoed to the laughter and the voices of almost one thousand youngsters. Many young people now in the local high school received their first introduction to school at the cooperative nursery school.

Time marches on, and now the building is to be torn down to make way for the freeway. A new school has been acquired, located at 474 North Parkview. Through the fine cooperation of many local merchants and businessmen, as well as hundreds of volunteer hours spent by the parents, the new school will be ready shortly after the first of the year.

So begins a new year and a new era for a school that through the years has been such an important part of the community.

"I can't take all the credit because all the dads and moms have done so much," modestly replied our community leader this week who is being saluted for her dedicated efforts on behalf of the Village Play School cooperative nursery.

During the past six months she has been president of the parents group and served as secretary prior to her term as president.

She spent many hours on the telephone and going door to door to secure assistance for the school. She organized fund-raising activities, including a rummage sale. In addition, she has given time to other organizations, including the Children's Home Society in Marin, which she helped organize, was official greeter for Furniture Club of Northern California, and assisted in other local fund drives.

We salute Margo Martin, our community leader of the week. The Martins, husband Marty and daughter Susan have been residents of Westlake for the past three years and reside at 17 Glenbrook.

Guests will be seated at tables decorated by their "birthday flower." Mrs. Lynn Hodges is program chairman. By the way, there will also be free nursery care for your little ones. HOLIDAY WHIRL: A festive evening for Benjamin Franklin PTA board members and husbands on Saturday night when their annual Christmas buffet supper party was held at the Taylor residence. Quite festive, too, were the pine-cone centerpiece decorations at each table.

Gifts were exchanged under a beautifully decorated tree by over sixty members when the Senior Citizens Club of Westlake held their annual Christmas party at the Westlake Baptist Church.

The members joined together in singing Christmas carols led by Robert Seiley. A special too was musicaal entertainment provided by Marilyn Wanger, Swedish exchange student Helena Frisell, and Willard Wagner, who presented piano solos and a duet.

FASHION HINT: New Year's Eve parties call for the most glamorous hair-does and there are several ways to make your coiffure more alluring. Take your favorite pin or earring and clip in hair, either on the back of part in front or center of hair in back (if your hair is done up). Drape a sparkling bracelet around your high French roll, clip a jeweled pendant above a widow's peak, spray silver, gold or delicate pastel (to match your gown) on your hair. (Trick, just wrap wax paper around head, slit, and pull out strands to spray.

NEWS BRIEFS: Ice skating star, Judy Birke, now with Shipstad and Johnson Ice Follies arrived by plane from New York to spend the holidays with her parents. Her vacation was brief however, because she had to return to Philadelphia for a Christmas Day performance.

Holiday dinner guests of the Billy Wagners were Mr. and Mrs. Thor Peterson from Santa Rosa.

Visiting in Santa Barbara are Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Mullen. Mr. Mullen just returned from the Far East.

Holiday visitors in Concord are Mr. and Mrs. Willard Wagner staying at the home of the Robert Hornbacks.

A gala New Year's Eve party scheduled for the Daly City-Colma Lions Club. Co-chairmen are Joe Rohl and Ray Logan.

Coming the second Monday in January the annual election of officers to lead the Pacific Art Guild for the coming year.

Home For The Holidays In Reverse For German Emigre

By BUNNY GILLESPIE

She's attractive. She's 20 years old. And, at a time of year when most people are returning to the ties, traditions and comforts of their family, she's half a world away from her home in Nuremberg, Germany.

So, of course, we asked Miss Helga Frances Weck if she weren't just a little bit homesick?

"Oh, no," she answered, "people are too friendly here for that, although I do miss the gemutlichkeit ... the good-natured coziness ... of home."

Helga arrived in the United States just three weeks ago, coming to the Bay Area via Lufthansa German Airlines from Munich to San Francisco. Her port of entry was New York and it was over that metropolis that she received the "thrill" of her flight, the viewing of the millions of lights of New York City.

Helga was escorted to the United States by her American sponsor, Edmund Schoessner, 1065 Gilman drive, Broadmoor Village, and it is with that gentleman and his very charming wift, Inge, that the new emigre is living.

Helga had previously made plans to enter Canada, but a year ago those plans went awry, she began the correspondence with the Schoessners that ultimately led to her establishing residence here.

With the aid of Mr. Schoessner as interpreter, we asked Helga how the observance of Christmas differed to festivities in America.

"Outdoor decorations," she said, "are unknown and only the tree in natural color is used. No pinks, blues or purples!"

She told us that St. Nicholas (a neighbor who visits 10 or 12 homes) comes for the children's holiday on December 5, the evening before his name day and brings goodies to the good children and a serious talk to the bad ones. Feasting, reunions and small presents follow his visit.

December 25 is a religious holiday with services and quiet family gatherings at homes. The Christ Child has brought gifts on Christmas eve and piled them neatly under the tree or on nearby tables. Distribution of the gifts is preceded by the singing of carols such as "O Tannenbaum" or "Stille Nacht, Heilige Nacht." The following day, visitations to many friends occur, which are planned in lieu of mass posting of greeting cards.

Asked what the most noticeable difference between home and Colma was, she pertly answered, "the climate!" The day she departed from Nuremberg, it was 22 degrees centigrade below zero. (Zero is the freezing point.)

Nuremberg, she told us, is an industrial city of approximately half a million inhabitants, with a history dating back to 1050 and the time of Henry III.

Known as the fount of German art, Nuremberg is famous as the birthplace of Renaissance artist Albrecht Durer, sculptors Adam Krafft, Veit Stoss and Peter Vischer, and the cobbler-poet-historian Hans Sachs.

The streets are narrow and crooked, with the majority of houses having gables turned towards the street. Most private dwellings date from the 16th century and display Gothic architecture borrowed from the Renaissance period.

Helga's sister, mother and brother had moved in 1945 to Nuremberg as refugees from Czechoslovakia.

At home, she attended elementary school and high school, followed by study in a trade school to prepare her for a career in photography.

Following her professions, she worked in Germany as a photo engraver with the U.S. Army European exchange system and she has already secured a position here in the same field.

For four years she served as a volunteer worker with the Bavarian Red Cross in hospitals, kindergartens and homes for the blind and aged.

In addition to her donations of time and services to the above, Helga carried on, as she will continue to do from America, correspondence with friends in 16 different nations.

MISS HELGA WECK

An avid reader, she also enjoys bowling and swimming.

Already a California booster, Helga hopes to see as much as possible of the state. Arriving in San Francisco afforded her the first view of an ocean and she has been touring with Mr. and Mrs. Schoessner as time permits.

Impressed with some of our local sources of pride, she found the Golden Gate Bridge larger and much nicer than she expected. As amazed as she was with the size of the San Francisco city hall, the newcomer was "most amazed" that the museums, zoo, parks, etc., are free of admission charge. In Germany, one has to pay for these treats.

Of her current residence, Helga expressed delight with the setting of Broadmoor Village and its streets winding along hillsides.

And, as far as we can tell, Broadmoor is delighted with her, too.

Willkommen and Frohliche Weihnachten, Helga!

Eagles Auxiliary Support Youth Training Center

The local Fraternal Order of Eagles, Colma-Vista Grand Auxiliary 1848, has joined with its sister auxiliaries across the country in pledging to raise money for the order's 10th overseas youth vocational training center.

The Eagle House will be located in Chone, Province of Manabi, Ecuador, according to Dolores A. Sydow, president of the local women's fraternal group.

The auxiliary project will be named in honor of the group's first grand madam president, the late Kay Guy, Irwin, Pa.

Co-sponsored with CARE, the Eagle workshop will provide carpenter training for boys in a course lasting four years. Proficiency in a trade is their only hope to improve poor living standards. The lack of competent tradesmen is one of the chief factors hampering progress in this area, according to CARE officials.

The workshop itself will be a wing of an existing school, the Colegio Normal de Chone, which is administered by the Ministry of Education and has 300 male students between the ages of 12 and 20.

Eagle aeries are concurrently sponsoring a like youth training center in Turkey. Other Eagle houses, sponsored by both groups, are located in West Berlin, Germany; Naples, Italy; Catania, Sicily; Manila, P.I.; Temuco, Chile; Mexico City, Mexico; Pyrgos Vaasilissis, Greece, and Abadan, Iran.

MRS. ROBERT WAGNER is the new floor chairman for the Westlake Festival Committee. Robert Hunter is general chairman of next year's spring festival and he has announced that the theme will be "Showboat Time." The four exciting days selected for the event are May 2, 3, 4 and 5.

Mrs. Wahl To Head Daly City's Jewish Welfare Campaign

Mrs. Max O. Wahl, 39 Park Manor drive, will serve as chairman of the Jewish Welfare Federation's 1963 campaign in Daly City.

Named as vice-chairman of the residential drive in this area will be Mrs. Philip Frucht, 1339 Southgate avenue.

The campaign will seek funds on behalf of 33 local, national and overseas health, recreational, relief and social welfare agencies and institutions. Local beneficiaries include Emanu-El Residence Club, Homewood Terrace, Jewish Family Service Agency, Mt. Zion Hospital and Medical Center and the United Jewish Community Centers.

SF State College String Orchestra

The San Francisco State College String Orchestra will present a concert in the College's Little Theatre, Sunday, January 6, at 3 p.m.

Dr. Walter L. Haderer will conduct the program, which will include music from the works of J. S. Bach, Grieg and Bartok. Of special interest will be the Jean Poquet "Symphony for Strings," which is based on the folk songs of Brittany and Auvergns.

Also included in the String Orchestra concert program will be the Karl Stanmitz "Clarinet Concerto No. 3," with soloist Tom Rose, and the Faure "Elegy," with John Bennet as cello soloist.

Admission to the String Orchestra concert is complimentary. For further information, call JUniper 5-7174.

Senior Citizens' Christmas Party

At their regular weekly meeting on Wednesday, December 19, the Senior Citizen Group of Westlake held their annual Christmas party. The tables were beautifully arranged and every person was given fruit cake, a bar of chocolate and a basket of candy.

There was a Christmas tree and a table filled with presents. After the regular lunch was served, a piano recital arranged by Willard Wagner, presented Miss Helena Frissel, an exchange student from Sweden, playing Debussy's "Arabesque"; Miss Marilynn Wagner playing a special selection "A Dream of Christmas" by Kettleby, and an unusual arrangement of Dvorak's "Humeresque" for a piano trio, in which the two young ladies were assisted by Wagner.

Community singing was led by Robert E. Ceiley. Then a group picture was taken, after which Santa Claus came in and distributed presents.

The group meets at the Westlake Baptist Church auditorium, Southgate and Windsor streets, every Wednesday from 10:30 a.m. to 3 p.m. The group is non-denominational and everyone over 50 is welcome.

Holy Angels Church Is Site For Pizzi-Balocco Wedding

Honeymooning in Nevada, Oregon and Southern California are the new Mr. and Mrs. Edward Peter Balocco who were married recently in an afternoon ceremony performed at Holy Angels Church in Colma.

The bride is the former Nancy Ann Pizzi, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Gino Pizzi, 110 Vale street, Daly City, and her husband is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Emil Balocco. Officiating at the beautifully appointed service was Father David Lynch.

For her marriage, Nancy wore a full length original gown by Alfred Angelo, styled with a chapel train and Sabrina neckline.

Her long sleeves formed a V over the wrists and the chantilly lace bodice was detailed with seed pearls and crystal beading.

The silk organza skirt was designed with a lace panier front and the polonaise back fell into the chapel train.

Her pearl and crystal crown was shaped into a rose to hold her silk illusion finger tip veil. Nancy's carrying piece was a shower of orchids and stephanotis. Escorting her to the altar was her father, Gino Pizzi.

For her matron of honor, Nancy selected her cousin, Mrs. Jeanette Rudden. Another cousin, Judith Crowford, served as bridesmaid with Ruth Wimmer, Deanna Gravel and Sharon Tognola.

The attendants carried crescent shaped arrangements of yellow roses. Their gowns were of emerald green satin styled with snug bodices, circlet necklines and cap sleeves. The skirts featured a wrap effect of satin roses and leaves. Their headpieces were of matching satin roses.

Robert Balocco served his brother as best man and a quartet of the bridegroom's friends seated guests. They were Charles Passalagua, Terrance Delaney, Louis Brusatori and Raymond Campodonica.

For her daughter's wedding Mrs. Pizzi donned a beige silk and shantung gown with a self-pouffed skirt and corded midrif, topped with a lace sheath and embroidered with ribbon scrolls.

The bridegroom's mother, Mrs. Balocco, chose a silk shantung sheath of shocking pink and wore matching accessories.

San Mateo Boy Scout Council

Proposed Realignment Rejected

At a meeting held in the Little Theater of the Hillsdale High School, San Mateo, last week, December 17, members of the San Mateo County Council, Boy Scouts of America, voted to reject the proposed realignment of the seven Boy Scout Councils in San Mateo, San Francisco, Marin, Alameda and Contra Costa Counties. Council President L. L. Johnston, Menlo Park, presided.

The action was taken following several weeks of intensive study of the realignment proposal by a specific Executive Board Study Committee composed of Wallace E. Ott, Menlo Park, Chairman; Robert Fizer, Pacifica; John T. Montgomery, San Bruno; Graeme MacDonald and Phillip M. Lighty, Hillsborough; Frank Catalano, Millbrae; and Raymond O. McHenry, James E. Minto and John F. Linden, San Mateo.

The realignment proposal was the result of an eighteen month study of the growth and progress of the Boy Scouts of America in the San Francisco Bay Area by a Study Commission headed by former Senator William F. Knowland, assisted by C. Dean Ramsden, Alameda; Thomas Barfield, Bolinas; Duncan Knudsen, Lafayette; Gilbert S. Hohmann, Piedmont; George Harding, San Francisco; Edward R. Dale, Woodside; William J. Nicholson, Santa Clara; John Donegan, Palo Alto; and George Truitt, Oakland.

The Study Commission recommended that the territory of Marin, San Francisco, San Mateo, Alameda and Contra Costa Counties now served by seven Councils be realigned as one Council, that the two Councils in Santa Clara County should not be included in any realignment at this time, and that one Council Administrative office be established and the other offices be retained as service centers.

In rejecting the realignment proposal the council members concurred with the recommendations of the Executive Board of the San Mateo County Council and its study committee in that it is not to the advantage of Scouting in the San Mateo County Council to adopt the proposed Bay Area Realignment plan, presented by the Bay Area Study Commission, at this time or in its present form.

In a resolution directed to Region XII, Boy Scouts of America, rejecting the proposal, the council members expressed the desirability for continued study of the original objectives of the Bay Area Study Commission.

CHP To Work To Cut Down Holiday Deaths

The California Highway Patrol during the New Year's Holiday, in the Redwood City area will concentarate on enforcement against moving violations, particularly excessive speed and drinking drivers.

"That's our assignment, and the Patrol will have every available man on duty over both Christmas and New Year in a maximum effort to cut down the accident toll," Capt. John W. Kennedy, Area commander, said.

Both holidays are 102 hours this year. The Christmas weekend begins 6 p.m. December 21 and runs through midnight Tuesday, December 25. The New Year's weekend starts at 6 p.m. December 28 and continues until midnight Tuesday, January 1, 1963.

"Patrol efforts will be of little consequence, however, if drivers fail to heed common sense requirements of holiday motoring," the captain said.

"Alertness, courtesy, compliance with traffic laws—these are your insurance against accidents."

Family Finance Discussion

When parents are pincered between holiday - depleted bank balances and bleak income tax return booklets, the spotlight falls upon "Family Finance" at the 8 p.m., Friday, January 4 meeting of the San Francisco Chapter of Parents Without Partners, Inc., in the Community Room of Bayview Federal Savings and Loan Association, 3560 Geary Blvd., San Francisco.

In covering this subject, Lois Hoskins, Home Economist and Instructor with the San Francisco Board of Education Adult Division's Family Life Education Service, directed by Frances Miller, is expected to touch upon making the dollar mean more.

A January Activities Report with information about the January 12 dessert party, January 15 "Creative Conflict" discussion, and January 19 afternoon at skateland for this group's divorced, widowed, and separated men and women and their children precedes Miss Hoskins' discussion.

In a get-acquainted atmosphere, a refreshment hour concludes the evening.

Two Daly City Residents Receive Army Cash Awards

Two Daly City residents were cited and given cash awards in San Francisco, on Thursday, December 20, for outstanding performance of office duties with the Army Corps of Engineers.

Colonel John A. Morrison, San Francisco District Army Engineer, presented Mrs. Estelle M. Spencer of 16 Glenrose avenue, with a $100 cash award and Shelby W. Hartman, 445 Winchester avenue, with a $150 award.

"Mrs. Spencer," said Col. Morrison, "accomplished all of her secretarial duties normally requiring a full-time employe within her normal 30-hour work week during the period of September, 1961, through June, 1962. This service saved considerable money for the Army Engineers," he added.

She works in the Survey Branch, Engineering Division of the Corps.

Hartman, who also works in the same branch as a civil engineering technician, continuously exceeded job requirements during this same period and consolidated reference plan files of the division's various elements single-handed in addition to normal assignments.

"The savings realized by the Government in the instance of consolidation of the files single-handed," said Col. Morrison, "is estimated at $1,100."

Beer Tax Totals ⅓ Million

California beer drinkers poured nearly one-third of a million dollars of tax money into federal, state and local treasuries every day throughout 1962.

The exact figure, based on estimated consumption during the year of 8 million barrels, was a record $318,000 per day or a yearly total of $116 million, according to Geo. W. Ososke, executive secretary of the California Brewers Assn.

The highest incidence of accidents involving drivers who had been drinking occurred between the hours of 10 p. m. and 3 a. m. Approximately 59.3 per cent of all reportable accidents occurring between 2 a. m. and 3 a. m. involved drivers who had been drinking, according to the California highway patrol.

Vet Widows Eligible For War Pensions

San Mateo County Veterans' Service Officer, Floyd D. Granger, this week said the Veterans Administration has estimated that about 10,000 widows of World War II and Korean Conflict veterans are still eligible for death pensions but haven't claimed them.

The local County office, according to Granger, assisted by the Division of Service and Coordination of the California Department of Veterans Affairs and by the veterans organizations, is prepared to assist in making claims for widows and orphans as well as veterans.

Up until July 1, 1960, said Granger, widows and children of World War II and Korean Conflict veterans were not entitled to pensions if the veteran died from a disability not due to war. However, they have qualified since that time if they meet income requirements and are in need, and if the veteran served 90 days or more and was discharged under honorable conditions.

If a widow remarries, she is not entitled to the pension, but if there were children born to the veteran and his wife, these children would be entitled to pension until they are at least 18 years of age.

Granger advises those people who feel they may be among the still eligible claimants to call at the San Mateo County Veterans' Service Office at the Courthouse, in Redwood City.

State General Fund Ahead Of Outgo

The State's General Fund income ran $33,296,800 ahead of outgo during the month of November, but expenditures for the fiscal year to date still were well ahead of revenues.

State Controller Alan Cranston reported today that General Fund revenues for the first five months of the 1962-63 fiscal year amounted to $651,658,082—up 13.3 per cent from a year ago. Governmental cost expenditures, on the other hand, totaled $745,701,499—up 11.7 per cent.

The cash balance at the end of November was 47,304,954, compared with $41,818,964 a year ago.

The sales tax so far this year has accounted for $378,778,139, up 8 per cent from last year but, nevertheless, below the 10.8% increase budgeted for 1962-63.

Other major sources of income include: Bank and corporation franchises and income taxes, $103,710,097; personal income tax, $33,537,662; inheritance tax, $31,808,943; cigaret tax, $29,360,254; liquor tax, $24,126,247, and revenue from state lands, $19,095,712.

Major expenditures include the following: Apportionment for elementary schools, high schools and junior colleges, $226,674,980; aid to needy aged, $64,156,344; University of California, $58,488,762; bond interest and redemption, $39,822,993, and aid to needy children, $34,333,851.

San Mateo County Cancer Society To Honor 3,000 Volunteers

The year 1963 will be dedicated by the American Cancer Society as its "Year of the Volunteer," it was announced recently by Mrs. Edward H. Jenanyan, president of the society's San Mateo County branch.

"We are paying tribute to the over two million men and women across the nation—volunteers from all walks of life, of all ages, of every faith and color, all working in their own way to hasten the day when cancer will be conquered," she said.

Mrs. Jenanyan pointed out that in San Mateo County alone, there are more than 3,000 American Cancer Society volunteer workers.

"They perform many necessary jobs," she said. "Some help bring comfort to cancer patients and their families. Some prefer to work with the general public — showing films, passing out life-saving literature, speaking before many kinds of audiences. Some provide indispensable office help. Others raise funds for cancer research and various program activities."

Mrs. Jenanyan invited anyone interested in volunteering services to the society to drop in at 1517 South B street, San Mateo, or telephone 341-8749.

"Whatever your skills are, we can use you," she declared.

Parade Magazine quotes the Public Health Service as saying it's wise to get re-vaccinated for smallpox every three years. There have been a number of smallpox scares in this country during the past year.

Daniel Webster School News

Mrs. E. Carle and Mrs. G. Gould took their first and second grade classes to the Academy of Sciences and African Hall Friday, December 7. Mrs. E. Cohen, mother of Betsy Cohen, accompanied the group.

The children approached the experience from the viewpoint of the effect of weather on environment.

A huge, thick-furred Brown Bear, native of Alaska, awed the children. But, foremost in interest was the beautifully executed scenes, by the late Frank Tose, of North American wildlife. It took some time before the students realized the animals were stuffed. Coiled Anaconda snakes, crocodiles, and other reptiles have been added to the Academy display and were thought to be mounted exhibits. However, they are alive and well worth viewing despite the lethargy that makes them appear lifeless. The only moving snakes were a rattler and a South American green snake.

The hippopotamus and rhinoceros who lived in the tropical rivers of Africa had very thick hides, while the gorilla, a forest inhabitant, needed his hairy covering. The process of preparing animals was displayed in one exhibit and explained why the animals appeared so lifelike.

The skeleton of a tremendous whale housed behind the Academy building capped a thrilling morning of witnessing some of the wonders of the animal world.

The program was introduced by Earl Taylor, president of the Colma K-6 School student body.

the winner's circle

By GARRY NIVER

The year 1962, which is gasping its last short breath, was quite a sport's year in Daly City and the Peninsula.

The big news in the prep sporting world was the death of the once powerful Peninsula League. The five-year-old loop broke up and passed into athletic oblivion at the start of the September, 1962 season.

The once-famed league, which had produced such stars as Paul Tapia—Jeff; Jerry Scattini—Capuchino; Joe Butcher—South SF, and Terry Christman—Westmoor, folded because of the influx of new high schools.

The loop swelled to ten teams in 1961 and three more schools came in at the start of the 1962-63 term. Capuchino, San Mateo, Burlingame, Mills, Hillsdale, Aragon and Crestmoor clasped hands to form the Mid Peninsula League.

North schools Jefferson, Westmoor, Terra Nova, South San Francisco, adopted novices El Camino and Oceana, and formed the new North Peninsula League.

RIVALRY ENDED

The second big news event was the now-confirmed rumor that the 39 year rivalry between Jefferson and South SF would be terminated.

The two oldest schools in the northern county had the oldest rivalry on the Peninsula. In years past, scores of cheering fans and gutty athletic teams packed stadiums and gymnasiums in the most known prep rivalry outside of San Francisco.

School officials at the two schools thought a Westmoor-Jeff and South SF-El Camino rivalry would be better in the future years to come. So a great era of rivalry is deadened by the scythe of progress. Whether the move is for the better or not, remains to be seen in 1963.

BASKETBALL

The Westmoor Rams grabbed fifth place in the ten team race with a 10-8 record in the long and gruelling 18 game league sched.

The Rams almost rose up to knock off PL champ San Mateo, but fell in the final second 66-62. San Mateo went on to post a 16-2 record and grab the title.

For their fine efforts, the Rams were rewarded with senior forward Mike Daniels being named to the coveted and final All Peninsula League Cage Team.

The Jefferson Indians were a little less fortunate. The Mission street cagers posted a 3-15 record.

BASEBALL

The Jeffs came back in this sport to close out the PL league. Coach Steve Mezzera's baseballers tallied a 10-8 record to tie for 3rd with South SF and Hillsdale.

The blue and gold nine put on a terrific stretch drive to capture their last four games and third place. Mills and Capuchino were co-champs with 16-2 records.

Indian outfielder Rich Reitz was a unanimous selection for All League honors. Reitz was second in league batting with a scintillating .426 average. Named to the 2nd team was Indian second-baseman Mike Roval.

And Westmoor was not without glory. The Rams, wilting a bit in the final phases of the grueling race, finished with a 6-12 record.

Amazing sophomore Bruce Hix won the league batting title with a fantastic .471 average, and was a unanimous selection to the All League team. The husky little third-baseman will be back to haunt Ram rivals for the next two years.

FOOTBALL

On September 19 the 1962 grid season opened. Coach Pete Matisi's Westmoor Rams, suffering from first game jitters, dropped a 7-6 contest to the surprising Aragon Dons.

During the ensuing two weeks the Rams ripped through Ravenswood 27-12, Burlingame 20-6 and lost to Northern California's top ranked team Serra, 21-6. It is interesting to note that the Rams had a comparatively easy time dumping Burlingame, which was the eventual champ of the Mid Peninsula League.

On October 19, 1962, the brand new North Peninsula League was officially unveiled. The Westmoor Rams, with four tough practice tilts under their belt, marched through five straight opponents to post an undefeated league season and grab the first NPL pennant on record.

The Rams had trouble with only South SF. Bruce Hix fired a perfect 14 yard strike to end Steve Schmuck in the closing minutes of the South SF game to break a 13-13 tie and send the Rams onto their undefeated season, 20-13.

It was one of the most rousing grid bouts ever witnessed on the Peninsula.

The Rams ended up with a respectable 7-2 record. The 1962 All League team was dominated by Westmoor, with Steve Schmuck, Tony Thomas, Bruce Hix and Mike DeBernardi being named to the coveted team.

Schmuck was "player of the year" and got further honors by making the All North Coast squad. Hix, the only junior on the mythical eleven, was named to the second team All North Coast.

Jefferson also had their stars with end Rich Waller and center Daryl Crist being named to the first squad.

Terra Nova was also honored. Earlier in the season the two-year-old school scored its first football win in history, beating Terra Linda of Marin. The Tigers went on to post a 5-3 record. Terra Nova coach Floyd Gonella was accorded the 'Coach Of The Year' honors.

What the new year will bring to the Peninsula Sports' scene is pure conjecture at this point.

But we will get out on the proverbial limb and predict one thing. It will be an exciting year and one worth sticking around for.

HAPPY NEW YEAR.

Rams, Jefferson Battered, But Wiser

WESTMOOR'S ALL-TOURNAMENT player, John Kelly, arches high to steal a rebound away from Serra in the Riordan tournament last Thursday night. However, despite Kely's efforts, Rams lost, 63-39. Other Ram is Rich Davis (51).

Daly City's two local cage teams, Westmoor and Jefferson, returned to the homefront this week a little battered, but much the wiser.

Coach Mike Orlich's Indians met defeat three straight times in the Palo Alto tournament last week. They lost the opener to Cubberly; the second game to San Mateo 40-29, and the finale to Sunnyvale 47-41.

"It was good practice for us," said Orlich. "We played three steady games and showed signs of merging into a well coordinated unit. We are potentially a great club. What we need is a good team leader to solidify us," the Jeff mentor concluded.

The group from the Hilltop campus of Westmoor fared a little better. Coach Tony Giamonna's cagers rallied after a 63-39 opening-night defeat at the hands of Serra, to dump San Carlos 54-49. The Rams lost narrowly to Capuchino the final night, 60-54, grabbing fifth place honors.

"We did pretty good the second and third nights," said Giamonna.

"Against Capuchino we were down 14 points at one time and made a solid bid for the game in the final quarter," said the Ram coach.

"It was a most rewarding tournament and I am sure our boys learned a lot. The experience was invaluable. We faced all types of offerings during the three games and the boys were playing together like a team," Giamonna commented.

Big hero in the tourney for the locals was 6-2 center John Kelly. The Ram senior was named to the All Tournament team and gave indications that he will be tough to reckon with once the North Peninsula League gets under way.

Kelly lead all scorers in the tourney, which featured some of the top cagers in Northern California, with 50 points. The dark-haired pivot-man also snagged 18 rebounds against San Carlos and 11 against Capuchino.

Another outstanding performer for Westmoor was guard Steve Schmuck. The gridder-turned-cager potted 14 against Serra, all from 20 feet out on quick jumpers.

In the final game against Capuchino, a 19 point 2nd quarter outburst by Capuchino set the Rams in a hole which they were never able to recover from. They pulled within three points in the final minutes, but couldn't get the lead. Kelly scored 15 points, followed by Schmuck with 11.

San Francisco's St. Ignatius won the tournament, beating host Riordan 60-50 Saturday night.

The locals go into hibernation until January 10, when the First Annual North Peninsula League Tournament is held at Oceana High School.

Until that time the two schools will remain inactive, complying with the 20-game limit edict put forth by the coaches this year.

San Mateo Auto Show Features $16,000 Car

A streamlined 306 mph race car built for the Bonneville salt flats will be among the feature attractions of the 8th Annuel San Mateo Auto Show, manager Harry Costa of South San Francisco, reports.

The bright red streamliner first ran at Bonneville in August, when it set a "B" class record at 249.324 mph with a best qualifying speed of 306.35 mph.

Owned by Don Hammon, Bob McGrath and Roger Whipp of Redding, the car is piloted by McGrath and is powered by a supercharged Chrysler engine.

Sharing the spotlight with the race car will be a $16,000 Maserati coupe, one of two built for millionaire sportsman Briggs Cunningham to race at the 1962 LeMans 24-hour race. The car is now owned by B. H. Spencer of Hillsborough, who will also show an immaculate 1937 Jaguar SS-100 and a Ferrari Testa Rossa roadster.

Costa announced that he has received the entry of Jerry Volavka of Littleton, Colorado, who will show his 1931 Ford sedan, a car built strictly for show purposes. Contrary to current practice, the car, which was featured in full color in the December Hot Rod magazine, is not lowered.

Volavka chose to retain the stock height, but to rely on unusual paint and upholstery combinations to produce a show-winning automobile.

A new feature this year at the eighth annual show will be the introduction of hourly drag races for model cars, and a special showing of all types of model cars.

The auto show will be held Friday through Sunday, January 4-6, in the Fiesta Building, San Mateo County Fairgrounds, San Mateo.

Baseball Already— Are You Serious?

Pack 63's first practice game will be played at Westlake Park on Sunday, January 6, at 2 p.m. where boys will be assigned positions and teams.

Pack 63 entered two teams in the West Twin Peaks softball league. Last year was such a success that this year they will field three teams.

Further information can be had by contacting the following coaches: John Biagotti, PL 6-0565; Robert C. Abbott, PL 6-4972; Bill Lonich, WY 2-0217, and Edward Perry, PL 5-8508.

Bring your gloves if you have them.

CSM Cagers Finish 2nd to CCSF

The opening of the Golden Gate conference basketball season is still two weeks away but the new league has already proved itself as the State's toughest cage loop.

Foothill college's first annual North-South Christmas classic last weekend provided the latest evidence to that fact. The tourney finale was all north—between the GGC's darkhorse College of San Mateo and defending State champion City College of San Francisco. CCSF defeated the Bulldogs, 75-62, for the crown after San Mateo had beaten Santa Ana, 56-39, and Bakersfield, 43-42.

Foothill stymied a Bakersfield zone, 50-40, for third place and San Jose nudged Cerritos, 58-57, for seventh. The south's Long Beach took the consolation title but at the expense of another Southern California team, Santa Ana, 78-73, and the Oil City Vikings didn't beat a Northern California entry in the tourney. All four Northern California teams are Golden Gate members.

San Mateo was the surprise team of the tournament with its second place finish. Defending Metropolitan conference champion Bakersfield was the choice in CSM's bracket while the Bulldogs weren't supposed to get by Eastern conference power Santa Ana in the first round.

The Disneyland Dons provided little challenge for San Mateo in the tournament's opener, however.

CSM jumped to a 5-0 lead on a three point play by Bob O'Donnell and a lay-in by forward Ted Winfield and the game was never in doubt from there on in as San Mateo shot a consistent 46 per cent from the floor and controlled the boards, 36-20. Bill Kinzie, Santa Ana's leading scorer and an All-Eastern conference veteran, was held to eight points and none of the Dons hit double figures. Mike Gilman and Bob O'Donnell each had 12 points for CSM.

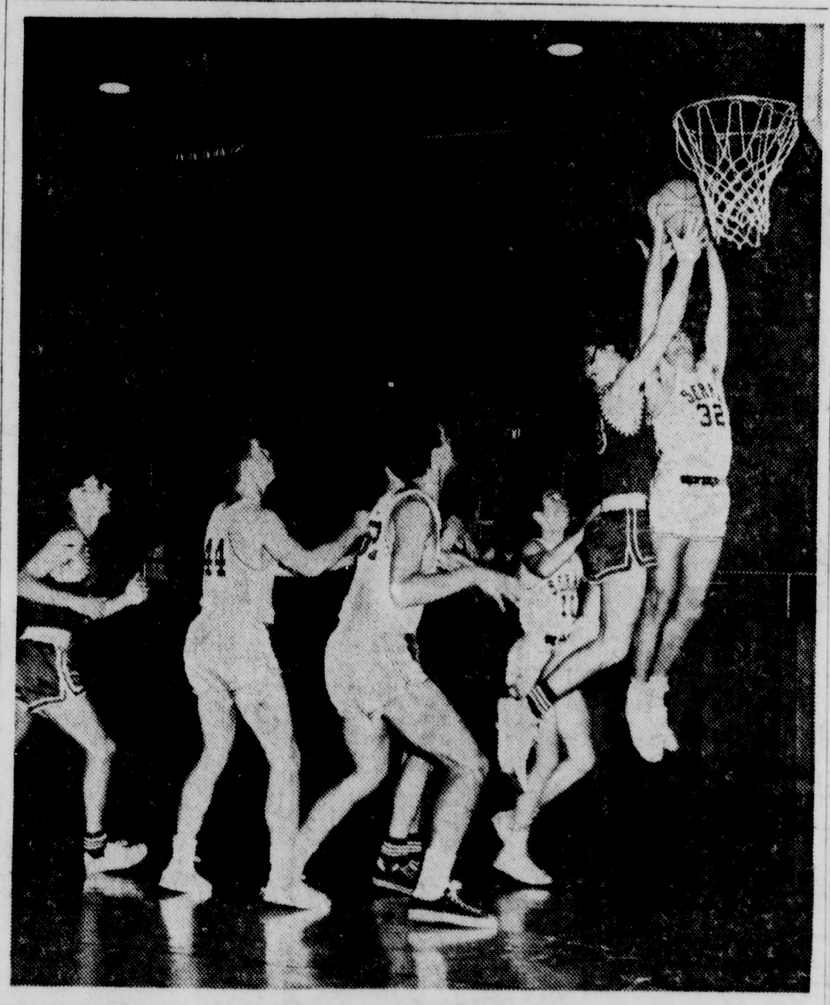
The CSM-Bakersfield clash provided one of the tourney's top games, with O'Donnell's turning jump shot 2:25 before the end deciding the contest in the Bulldogs' favor. Neither team scored after that although the Renegades broke into the CSM stall to get the ball in the last minute.

However Bakersfield waited for one last shot—that never came as Ron Stademan tied up a Bakersfield guard under the basket with four seconds remaining and CSM controlled the ensuing tip for the victory.

Milt Dickerson's fancy ball handling for the Bulldogs kept Bakersfield from effecting a tight press in the game. Gilman's 11 points led CSM scoring.

A change in the tournament's style of officiating and a veteran stacked CCSF team proved too much for the Bulldogs to overcome in the fibnale, though. San Mateo was unable to effect its usual rough board game as the officials clamped down after a rough Foothill - Bakersfield third place match.

The Bulldogs were called for 25 fouls compared to ten for the Rams.



BESPECTACLED Lee Graf (23), Westmoor forward, fights for a rebound in mid-air with an unidentified Serra High School cager. The Serra cager won the tug over the ball and the Padres also won the game.

It's SPARE TIME

at Westlake Bowl

By JIM GREALISH

Ted Bryan had one of his better weeks as he led the 510 Trio with an 808 series on games of 200-199-183-235 then came back in the 99er's Mixed Fives with a 603 series on a high game of 213.

Red Jensen is rapidly mastering the game of bowling, shooting a 191 game and 543 series to lead the Ball and Chain Mixed Fives as Lee Lockhart led the ladies with a 176 game and 498 series.

Steve Bonucelli almost repeated his 723 series of last week as he shot games of 247-256 and 190 for a 693 series to again lead the 915 All Stars. Other high shooters were George Colclough 633, Frank Valentine 624, and Bob Johnson 609.

Vince Ferrigno moved into the top spot in the Westlake Classic as he posted a 601 series on a high game of 224.

A mere two pins kept Red Zan from hitting the six hundred mark as he shot a big 244 game and 598 series to lead the Mayfair Strike League.

Westlake Bowlers will have an opportunity to welcome in the New Year with dancing, buffet, hats and horns as Angie Ferrigno has his combo provide music from 9 to 1 with a midnight buffet adding to the evening's pleasure.

Helen Noone missed becoming a member of the 600 Club by a scant five pins as she led the Ladies' 800 Classic with a 223 game and 595 series as the girls bowled their last night of league competition before the Christmas holidays.

The A-1 Nursery Ladies' League prepared for the Christmas buffet by posting some excellent scores. Mary Adams took high series honors with a big 556, games of 173-199-184. High game for the day went to Kay Corcoran with 207 while split converters were Sponsor Dorothy Moyle 5-7, Dolores Sargent 3-7-10, Ruth Keefe 5-8-10, Cynthia Rippon 5-6, Toby Giorgetti 5-7 and Betty Cooper 3-7-10.

Country Club leader for the week was Ron Biancalana with a 223 game and 568 series while George Keminsky took top honors in the Westmoor Handicap with a 225 game and 560 series.

Unofficial second week qualifiers in the News Call-Bulletin $9000 Tournament were: Class 1—James Paulk and David Campbell; Class 2—Joe Brown and Richard Hendricks; Class 3—Bill Carpenter and Jim Black; Class 4—Howard Tracy and Henry Jensen; Class 5—Donald De Witt and Morey Frates; Class 6—Kay Alvord and Louise De Witt; Class 7—Margie Wolk and Judith Soult.

If you didn't receive your Christmas wish yesterday, it's still available today, whether it's a 200 game, 600 series, new ball or a turkey (three strikes in a row).

The Tea Timers celebrated Christmas early with a buffet before bowling last Tuesday. The formula seemed to agree with Emily Drago as she rolled high game of 192 and high series of 501. Laura Mayer was the top split converter as she gracefully picked up the 5-7 split.

Jeanne Beck and Herb Cuevas were last week's leaders in the Southgate Mixed Fives as Jeanne shot a 185 game and 480 series while Herb had 235 and 631.

Poncho Ponciano was strictly major league as he led the Westlake Minors with a 207 game and 584 series.

One pin kept Herb Suhr from hitting the two hundred mark as he led the Golden Gate League with a 199 game and 569 series.

TV and RADIO

By Mona Baker

On the last lap of a whirlwind journey that took her to cities across the country, pretty Patricia Blair (Lou Mallory of ABC, KGO-TV's "The Rifleman") stopped by to meet the Bay Area press in a special afternoon press conference arranged by Channel 7 high atop Nob Hill in the Fairmont Hotel's magnificent "Crown Room."

A native of Texas, the glamorous red headed star began her acting career in little theater work in Dallas. Unfortunately, she related, she began college but "did not finish." She added she would strongly recommend that young people "finish college first before going into television or on the stage."

A young woman of quite definite likes and dislikes, one of her pet dislikes is a beauty contest and she said she had never participated in one.

Her other TV credits include "The Law and Mr. Jones" and "Follow the Sun." She also said she had been offered parts in "Ben Casey" and "Loretta Young series" but couldn't find the time to work them into her busy schedule.

First cellist of the Firestone Symphony Orchestra is George Ricci who was born in San Bruno. The local musician appears each Sunday on ABC's "Voice of Firestone" seen over KGO-TV at 10 p.m.

In addition to numerous television programs he was also featured in a recent cello sonata recital in Carnegie Hall.

TV DATES TO JOT DOWN: Over KPIX (Dec. 31, 11:15 p.m.) "Dick Stewart's New Year's Eve Party" with Bay Area teenagers dancing to top tunes of 1962. (Chatted with Dick last week for a few minutes and he told us his record "I Believe" is "going great.")

Another important date over KPIX is Jan. 2 when CBS will present a special telecast on lives and times of the nation's first ladies.

Special New Year's Eve telecast over ABC, KGO-TV will be the colorful King Orange Jamboree parade from Miami.

Important date on KRON-TV is Jan. 6 when NBC will present the annual year-end news report and forecast in special colorcast with 12 NBC news correspondents participating.

Serra Bowl News

With the advent of the new "Brunswick 90" lane conditioning machine at Serra Bowl scoring has never been higher. In last week's "Metro Mixed Travelers" action Otto Jackson pounded out a fat 580 threesome with a terrific 247 high single as he led his Brentwood Bowl team in a 2 to 1 win over Sea Bowl No. 1. Burlingame Bowl swept all 3 games from the Lincoln Bowl on Rick Mannion's sharp-shooting as he put together games of 176, 224, and 227 for a big 627 total. For the ladies it proved that practice pays in higher scores: Betty Burns led Sea Bowl over Castle Lanes with a strong 205-553 while Hazel So had a high 191-505 for the losers.

In the weekly "Metro Master" match Fred Von Husen's 604 series and 234 high game paced Burlingame Bowl's 2 to 1 defeat of Serra Bowl led by Dick Treadway's 212-590. Johnny Rebol monopolized the "trick shot" department by converting the 6-7 split twice.

The list of 200 games was long and strong in the Serra "Sunday Cocktail" league: Billy Beall led all the scores for Joe's of Westlake with his 200-557 closely followed by Ernie Gryalvo's 211-537. Other highs were Lewis Nelson 210 and Karl Bettencourt 200.

Waren Schwatka of the "Park Merced" league didn't wait for Serra Bowl's big New Year's Eve party to celebrate the holidays as he smashed a hefty 224-614 total for his Thomas Pierce team in last Friday's play. For the feminine laurels Bev Cronin missed 200 by only one pin for aa 199 effort.

Some other notable scores in Serra action included: Mel Beck 208, Geo. Hall 203, and Al Marks 200 in the "775 H'dcp." league. In "750" leagues the pins fell well as Bill Smit totaled 563 with a high 216 game while Jim Todd picked up a 207 and Henry Blunck a 203 game. In the "828 Scratch" league Bob Butler banged 211 while Ed Newman finished high with 579. Scores also soared in the "Astronauts Mixed 5's:" Bill Killian fired a hot 220 on his way to a 522 series, Jim Steffens was a little more steady with his 201-525 total, and Ron Clark nailed down a nice 204 single. Frank Petuya must have found the lanes "A-OK" at Serra that nite as he blasted out the biggest series with a 212-575 count. Go to it fellows, the sky's the limit!

FRIAR FRED'S HINTS ON BETTER BOWLING - Number 1.

DRESS PROPERLY!—Too many bowlers pay a costly price in comfort and scoring by wearing improper attire on the lanes. Gentlemen should wear a loose, preferably short-sleeved, shirt which allows for freedom of arm movement and a pair of comfortable slacks. For the ladies a blouse or cool sweater is fine with a loose but not too-full skirt. Personally fitted bowling shoes are an absolute must! A good rule-of-thumb is that any clothes that tend to hamper normal body movement will definitely hamper good bowling and should be avoided. NEXT WEEK — Proper Bowling Equipment.

SEA BOWL NEWS

"Joyiuex Noel, all you Kegling Pals!" Tis obviously the time to be jolly and oh by golly, you keglers are full of spirit! The Score Sheets tell us so.

Incidentally, your good working friend at the bowl, Lois Ricci, has a very valid reason to be jolly. Namely, the birth of a glorious son, Christopher Steven, 8 lbs. 15 ounces! Congratulations to a good friend of all of us, and a noteworthy bowler.

Special recognition goes to Mike Calais who sparked the Ken Royce team to a 2-game win, with a 609 series—225, 207-177. Don Bryant an up and coming bowler on Mike's team was there also.

California Trophy finally came through with the assistance of Art Ross 244 to capture High Team game of the league (BRRRRRRRT).

Those good old "Moonshiners" really bowled last Monday night! Fran Mazzetti toppled 457 which is 109 Sticks over her current average. (No Blue Book, yet.)

Dot Griffin smashed 456, slipping her 100 pins over average and walked away with a nice 2-7-10 conversion! Connie Bryant stole hi series from Bonny Gardener by, (Now Guess:) one pin! (542-541). That's the way the old ball bounces.

The fleet's in again! The Pacific Boat Club League crested Jack Hugler and Dessie Hart on the tide with 225-209 games and 569-516 series, respectively. "Sm-o-o-o-oth Sailing, Kids!"

Sea Bolerettes fete Lois Shaff for the week with a 189 game and 492 series; also Hi Team, El Granada MKT. a 560 game and 1572 series.

The Chicks were really Scratching in the Ladies "540 Scratch." Hi Series was a close race! Vivian Shade 579; Betsy Gardner 574; and Connie Bryant (what, again?) and Virginia Wilson 566 each. Gayle Harris had a whopping 192 game. Gentlemen, look to your laurels. These housewives are really hoofing it!

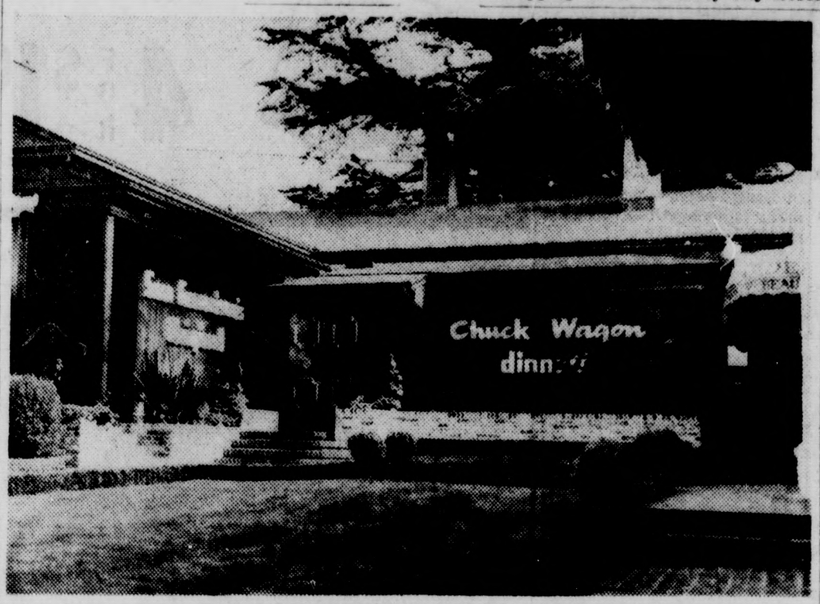
Underwater Film Festival Will Highlight Santa Clara Boat Show

Second annual Santa Clara County Underwater Film Festival will be a highlight of the Boat, Sports and Travel Show, combined with Autorama, January 18-20, at the Fairgrounds in San Jose, manager Bob Barkhimer announced recently.

Underwater skindiving, exploration, fishing and games will be depicted in slides to be shown in the boat show film theatre, Friday and Saturday, before a panel of judges, who will determine winners.

John Ruffino, arrangements chairman for the Underwater Film Festival, said this year's event is being enlarged to include entries from all over the state and judging will require two days. Special showing of the finalist entries may be held on Sunday, final day of the boat show.

Boating safety will be stressed in this year's show. A State booklet, "ABCs of California Boating Law," will be available in quantity at no charge, with laws and information on equipment requirements, registration of vessels, navigation signals, boat operating regulations, accident liability and reporting, water skiing safety and other details.



The Chuck Wagon — For Dining Pleasure

The Chuck Wagon, at 215 West Portal avenue, San Francisco, will be open New Year's Eve, complete with favors for all the guests. For those who are dining out New Year's Day, the "Wagon" will be open at 3 p.m.

Co-owners Ozzie Buonchristiani and Charlie Morosin claim to have "one of the best restaurants in town."

Whether you enter the Chuck Wagon from the bar-lounge or go directly into the dining room, you will be delighted with its charming decor.

For those who prefer an aperitif before dining, one can find it at the bar-lounge, where even the bar liquors are the best.

New friends and old gather in a congenial mood around the huge fireplace, another friendly feature at the Chuck Wagon, to enjoy a sociable after-dinner drink or two. Delicious hors d'oeuvres are also served at the bar.

Those patrons strictly interested in food will find the Chuck Wagon incomparable. The standard procedure is to look over the food display, choose whatever you desire and the amount, then your waiter escorts you to your table to serve you. Seconds may also be enjoyed. The piece de resistance of the house is their prime ribs of beef, served every night, along with two other entrees from which to choose. All Chuck Wagon meat is Idaho bred exclusively and the best money can buy. Other entrees may consist of Cornish game hen stuffed with wild rice, veal scallopini with Marsala wine, chicken cacciatora, Italian friend chicken, ravioli made at the Chuck Wagon with turkey meat and prime ribs, lobster, prawns, scallops or abalone. Such fare is hard to beat at the low price of $3.25, including tax.

The Chuck Wagon dining room is open from 5 p.m. to 11 p.m., weekdays, and Sunday from 4 p.m. to 10 p.m. The lounge is open from 5 p.m. to 2 a.m. They are closed Mondays.

Party facilities are also available for up to 150 people.

Nation's Business polled 225 leading business and industry executives on prospects for 1963. Sixty per cent of them say they expect business to continue on a somewhat sluggish plateau, with the year's over-all performance approximating that of 1962; 22 per cent forecast a general business decline, and 18 per cent predicted improvement.

Ads, Profits Linked

Leading advertisers are also leading profit-makers, Norman E. Cash, president of the Television Bureau of Advertising told the annual meeting of the bureau in New York.

Cash said that the top 50 national advertisers during the last five years accounted for 41 per cent of all spending in measured media.

"These top 50 advertisers had but 10 per cent of the sales of American business in 1961," he said. "To put it another way, the rest of the companies accounting for nine out of 10 sales dollars had but 59 per cent of all national advertising expenditures."

But, he said, the leading advertisers had one-fourth of all profits reported for U. S. business in 1961.

"While profits of all business rose but 5 per cent and sales 9 per cent in the past five years, the leading advertisers showed a profit gain of 18.6 per cent and their sales went up 12.6 per cent," Cash said.

Brisbane School Board Needs To Fill Vacancy

The San Mateo County Board of Education this week announced the completion of a Citizens' Nominating Committee to suggest names from which an appointment may be made to fill the vacancy on the Brisbane School District Governing Board.

The Committee will include Mrs. Ruth Wooden who will act as Chairman; Allen Rigler, Merle Van Kirk, Frank Druhan, Sr., Dick C. Schroeder, Sgt. Roy Edwards and R. Nastari, all of Brisbane.

The vacancy for which the Committee will make suggestions to the County Board of Education was created by the recent resignation of Mrs. Ellen I. Bhend. Mrs. Bhend was elected to the Brisbane Board in 1950 and has been successful in each succeeding election. The new board member will be appointed to serve until June 30, 1963.

The County Board made a specific request that the new Board member be a resident of the Southern Hills Subdivision, since they are of the opinion that within the next few years this area will furnish a large percentage of the school population, and, therefore, should have representation on the school board.

Anyone who is interested in proposing a nominee who lives in the Southern Hills subdivision may send the nominee's name to James P. Tormey, secretary of the county board, 538 Jefferson avenue, Redwood City.

Cub Pack No. 248 Meet Held Dec. 20

The traditional Flag Ceremony opened the December meeting of Pack 248 held at 7:30 p.m., December 20, at the Fernando Rivera School. The meeting was conducted by Den One with Ronnie Noero leading the group in the Salute to the Flag.

Cubmaster James Vick and Assistant Cubmaster Lee Faulkner inducted the following boys into the Pack: Steven Block, Paul Ayoub, Patrick Rice, and Pat O'Neill. Joel Weinberg and Bruce Belotz of Den Three gave the Scout Promise and the Law of the Pack, respectively.

Receiving awards for the month were: Den Two: George Rally, Gold Arrow; Curtis Blake, Gold and Silver Arrows; Nick Lucas, Wolf Badge. Den Four: Robbie O'Neill, Lion Badge. Den Six: Martin Blackfield, Gold Arrow. Den Seven: Paul Gressani, Bear Badge; Roland Candie, Silver Arrow.

The Inspection Award for the month was won by Den Nine, and the Attendance Award went to Den Three.

The high spot of the evening was the exhibition of legerdemain performed by magician Ken Phelps, ably assisted by Mrs. Phetlos. Featured among his many mystifying tricks of magic was Snowball the wringer-proof rabbit.

Santa Claus, who bore a strong resemblance to Assistant Cub Master Faulkner, made an appearance and gave out presents to the Cubs and to their brothers and sisters.

Proving that when winter comes, spring cannot be far behind, Baseball Coach Vic Graf announced the following practice schedule for boys interested in going out for the two teams. The first practice is at ten a.m. on January 5, and the second practice is also at ten o'clock on January 12. Both are at the Westlake School.

Chairman Al Belotz announced the next pack meeting for January 17 and asked for a show of hands of boys planning to attend the field trip to the Presidio when the Pack will be the guests of the Sixth Army. Chairman Belotz also acknowledged the presence at the meeting of Assistant Commissioner Dick Davis.

Pack 293 Meets

Cubs from Pack 293 had their December meeting in the Abraham Lincoln multi-use room on December 14. They were visited by Santa Claus, who inspected the pack and handed out candy canes to all Cubs and younger sisters and brothers. Santa also gave presents for the gift exchange.

Cubmaster Bob Lorenzi made an inspection before handing out the awards. A large class of Bobcats were welcomed into the pack, and pins were awarded to the following boys: Jim Hamilton, Joseph Gallegos, Joey Stavish, Mike Silverthorn, Gary Smith, Steve Mueller, Jerry Kern, David Herbst, Steven Muellenkamy and John Caruso.

Daniel Wilson was awarded a Bear badge and Jeff Bedford received his Bear badge and a gold arrow. Jimmy Green had earned his Lion badge.

Pins were given to Steve Kircher for being in the pack one year, and to Donald Lueder for three years.

Denner stripes were given to Tommy Furrer, Richard Saxton and Joseph Gallegos were given assistant denner stripes.

Plans were made for the January 7 pack meeting and for a pack trip to an ice hockey game on January 20.

THE WESTLAKE SCHOOL in Daly City, with 130 fifth and sixth graders' voices, participated in KGO-TV's "The Young Voices of Christmas" telecast Sunday, December 23 (Channel 7). Under the direction of Miss Patricia Hackett, the choir sang "T'was the Night Before Christmas." Ten Bay Area schools were featured in the special hour-long musical program.

Westlake School In Christmas Telecast

One hundred and thirty students of the Westlake School in Daly City participated in an hour-long Christmas choral special on KGO-TV, Channel 7 in San Francisco, on Sunday, December 23.

Entitled "The Young Voice of Christmas," the unique telecast, largest of its kind ever produced in the Bay Area, will feature 730 voices representing choral groups from ten San Francisco Bay Area schools.

According to KGO-TV's Gordon Waldear and Jim Baker, producer and director of the special show, the program was 60 minutes of Yuletide music with no narration. It was videotaped in advance during three recording sessions in Channel 7's large Studio A in San Francisco on December 14, 15 and 16.

The program included more than 20 of the world's most beautiful Christmas hymns as chosen by the musical directors of the ten Bay Area schools participating. Schools and hymns included in the program are:

1—Alto School of Mill Valley—35 fourth graders' voices under the direction of Mrs. Ethelee Reed sang: "Posada," "The First Noel" and "O Little Town of Bethelehem."

2—St. Monica's Parochial School of San Francisco—130 voices from the fourth grade through the eighth grade sang "Sleigh Ride," "Because It's Christmas" and "Friendly Beasts.' The director was Sister Mary Rose Genevieve.

3—The Eldredge School of Southern Alameda County—90 fourth and fifth graders' voices under the direction of Donald Sereno sang: "The Westminister Carol," "Carol of the Bells" and "Christmas Choir.'

4—Lincoln School of Alameda—the 30-member eighth grade girls' choir, under the direction of Dorothy Bell, sang "Silent Night" and "It Came Upon a Midnight Clear."

5—Mercy High School of Burlingame — the 35-member girls' choir, under the direction of Sister Mary Suzanne, sang "Wolcum Yule," "Carol of the Russian Children" and "Angels We Have Heard on High."

6—El Cerrito High School of El Cerrito — a combined group of 48 voices and 38 instrumentalists presented "The Holst Christmas Medley," under the direction of Marvin Nelson.

7—Woodside High School of Woodside — 45 mixed voices sang "Fanfare for Christmas Day," "Deo Gratias" and "There Is No Rose," the latter two selections from Benjamin Britten's "A Ceremony of Carols." The director was Robert Clark.

8—Berkeley High School of Berkeley — the 75-member Aeolian Girls' Choir presented "Carol of the Drums" and Kordaly's "Angels and the Shepherds." The director was Mrs. Jacqueline Hardester.

9 — Oakland City College Choir—Cecil Enlow directed 78 mixed voices with organist and narrator in the performance of "Songs of Christmas."

10—Westlake School of Daly City—130 fifth and sixth graders' voices, under the direction of Patricia Hackett, sang "T'was the Night Before Christmas."

Students of college age who are members of the Broadmoor Presbyterian Church in Colma will be honored at a special "Friendly Time" gathering this Sunday following the 11 a.m. worship service.

Twenty Broadmoor members attend college.

Hosts for the reception in the social hall will be the Voyager Mariners, the couple's group of the 87th-st. church. Bob and Marjie McBride are skippers of the organization.

Rev. Herbert C. Tweedie, Broadmoor's minister, stated, "Usually our friendly times are held on the first Sunday of each month, but some of the young people will not be in the area next week so we're casting tradition to the winds and rearranging the church calendar."

Tweedie also announced that in another area of activity tradition would be kept, as the annual New Year's Eve pot-luck dinner and program will be held Monday night from 6:30 p.m. until 8:30.

"Many of our members have observed this happy custom for years," Tweedie commented. "After dinner we sing a little, maybe show some vacation slides, have a devotional period and end up with singing 'Blest Be The Tie That Binds' and 'Auld Lang Syne.' In this manner, our families start the end of the old year in their church home."

CSM Spring Semester To Open January 28

The spring semester of the 1962-63 academic year at the Evening College of the College of San Mateo is scheduled to open the week of January 28. Available to high school graduates or to anyone else over 18 years of age, the offerings of the Evening College furnish and unparalleled opportunity for adults residing in the San Mateo Junior College District to cultivate new intellectual or artistic interests, to prepare for new vocational opportunities and to up-grade present job qualifications, or to work toward a college degree.

Schedules giving full details as to time and place of all class meetings, instructors' names, and course credits are currently available at all main and branch public libraries on the Peninsula and from the Evening College office on Coyote Point. Registration takes place in the classroom at the opening meeting of each course.

More than 250 courses in some 30 different fields of academic and vocational learning will be available. To assist current or prospective students in their choice of programs in all this variety, four group counselling sessions are scheduled for January 3, 8, 17, and 23 at 7 p.m. in room 19-G on the Coyote Point Campus. For people whose questions have not been answered in these meetings, further individual counseling will be available before and during registration week, and by appointment throughout the semester.

The attention of prospective students is also called to the fact that an English placement test is required before enrolling for the first time in English composition and grammar classes in the Evening College. These tests are offered without charge on January 12 and 19 at 8 a.m. in the Men's Gym, and on January 21 at 7 p.m. in room 19-G, both on the Coyote Point campus.

Math placement tests, required of students intending to register for math courses on the level of analytical geometry, calculus, or above, are given on January 12 at 2 p.m. in the Men's Gym and on January 28 at 7:30 p.m. in room 19-L.

Many of the courses offered by the Evening College this semester provide units toward a junior college degree or transferrable units towards a bachelor's degree at a four-year institution. Certificate programs are also available in the fields of industrial management, business management, real estate, vocational gardening, ornamental horticulture and other vocational areas.

Classes are located principally on the Coyote Point campus, the Delaware, and the Hillsdale and Capuchino High Schools. Students under 21 years of age are not subject to a registration fee. All other students are required to pay a nominal $2 fee per class per semester, plus necessary textbooks and supplies.

S. S. F. Scholarships Available to 'B' Average Students

"No student need be a straight 'A' student to qualify for a scholarship," maintains Robert Howe, head counselor at South San Francisco High School.

Howe claims that there are many scholarships available for students who have done better than average work but have fallen short of all "A's." He calls attention to a number of scholarships available to students who live in South San Francisco. Three of them are The Buri Buri Women's Club Scholarship worth $500; the Rotary Scholarship worth $600, and the PTA Scholarship of $500.

In addition to these there are scholarships for local students by both the California Teachers' Association and the American Federation of Teachers.

Most scholarships require a student to have grades of "B" minus or better.

Mrs. Ivan Bjorklund is the counselor at South San Francisco High School in charge of scholarships. She plans to prepare a bulletin in the near future for seniors interested in scholarships.

USF Faculty Man U. S. College Rep

Dr. Edward J. Griffin, chairman of the education department, University of San Francisco, will be California liaison representative for the American Association of Colleges for Teacher Education, USF has announced.

Dr. Griffin will serve through 1965, succeeding Dr. Glenn Kendall, president of Chico State College. The association is the national voice of teacher preparation, with more than 300 member colleges and universities.

The Soup Is On

Mrs. Martin's first grade class, Colma K-6 School, went to the Farmer's Market. This field trip was a part of Mrs. Gulliksen's, the assistant teacher's nutrition unit, which is based mostly on fruits and vegetables and their importance in our diet.

After the field trip the students decided they would like to make some vegetable soup. The students brought vegetables that they had seen at the Farmer's Market, and made their own soup in class. They washed, peeled, and cut up the following vegetables: celery, onions, parsley, carrots, potatoes and cabbage. Then they added a soup bone, bouillion cubes and noodles.

Cal College Capital Says Stanford Prexy

California has become the college capital of the world.

With half a million students enrolled in its institutions of higher learning, California has a clearly established lead of nearly 130,000 in college population over the second place state, New York.

During the past decade, California also moved ahead of both New York and Massachusets in the proportion of college-age youngsters actually enrolled in college. It now leads every major industrial state in this respect.

At least three factors have contributed to California's move into the number one position in higher education.

1—a long history of close cooperation between public and private institutions.

2—Sustained financial support for both sectors of its educational system: and

3—Close ties between the suppliers and appliers of knowledge.

As Wallace Sterling, Stanford president, put it: "One of the strengths of American higher education has been its diversity. The private institutions, were the first in the field, and the best of them still rank very high.

"The public institutions were established to met community and national needs. They are now increasingly bearing the burden of numbers as enrollments increase, and the best of them are at the same time improving standards.

"In many ways, the private and public sectors of American higher education have been complementary. So far as I am aware, this complementary relationship has nowhere been more effectively constructive than in California."

The state's widely heralded master plan for higher education is the most tangible — and widely emulated — result of the friendly relations between private and public institutions in California.

Christmas Program

Mrs. Alice Von derMehden and Miss Mary Wade's morning kindergarten classes at Vista Mar presented their Christmas program to parents.

Acting as announcers were students from the kindergarten classes—Jeff Felix., Michael Malekos and Bill Higgins announcing "Santa's Helpers," "Funny Little Snowman," and "Three Little Jingle Bells," sung by Miss von derMehden's group.

"Emcees" for Miss Wade's class were Frankie Kelly, Karen Long, Renee Fassler, who announced "Santa's Reindeer," "My Stocking" and "I'm a Little Pine Tree," songs sung by Miss Wade's group.

Vista Mar Parties

The Vista Mar PTA gave each class at Vista Mar a class party. Serving the classes were room mothers. A program was also provided by the class, using students in each room.

Visit Nuclear Ship

Daniel Webster fourth and fifth grade classes of Miss Eunice Wright, Mrs. Dorothy Smith and Mr. Tom Notaro recently visited the N. S. Savannah, the world's first nuclear-powered merchant ship while it was at Pier 30 in San Francisco.

The sixty-seven pupils were intrigued by the ship's nuclear reactor which has the capacity to take her around the world 14 times without refueling.

When they returned to school the classes recorded their visit in paintings illustrating the streamlined Savannah. Since many had never visited a steamship many new concepts appeared in their illustrations — such as cargo holds, staterooms, bridge, deck, and pilot house.

S.S.F. STUDENTS LAY PLANS FOR ANNUAL SCIENCE FAIR

South San Francisco High School students are busy making plans for the second annual South San Francisco Science Fair which will be held at the Spruce School Gymnasium, March 15 and 16.

All South San Francisco pupils in the fourth through the twelfth grades may participate. The fair is being sponsored by the South San Francisco Enterprise-Journal in cooperation with the South San Francisco Unified Schools and scinece departmentts.

Set up to encourage students to take a more active interest in science, the fair will accept any project dealing with science. Last year's winners from South San Francisco High School were Eugene Nelson, Dana Louie, and Ron Schmidt. The Science Fair is organized into grade divisions: fourth, fifth, and sixth grades; seventh and eighth grades; ninth and tenth; and eleventh and twelfth.

Prizes range from the $50 grand prize for the best projects of each grade. Certificates of participation will be presented to each entrant.

"Last year about 370 students entered and this year we hope for an even bigger turn out," said Mrs. Glenn Buzolich, science coordinator and chairman of the fair. He added, "I encourage interested students to plan now and to start work on their projects as soon as possible."

Vista Mar News

The fifth grade classes of Mrs. Peggy Christgau and Mrs. Frances Lanthier went on field trips to the Oakland public museum, where they were taken to a lecture room to see authentic material from the colonial period. After the demonstration talk, they were taken to a gallery where the children inspected the room exhibits of Colonial life. These trips were taken as part of the study of the history of the New England states.

An actual demonstration of the weaving of wool provided a valuable visual experience for children.

Upon their return, motivation ran high as the children exchanged ideas, and concepts which were provided as a result of the educational tour.

Foreign Student Receives Money

The South San Francisco High School teachers association recently donated money for a Christmas fund for Charlie Soendjasmono, foreign exchange student from Indonesia.

David Ray, biology teacher, is president of the association.

Better Representation

The county board of supervisors' move to redistrict is seen as a step toward better representation for this end of the county.

Re-apportionment plan sponsor T. Louis Chess feels the plan would make the five districts fairly well equalized with a maximum variance of from 17 to 24 per cent in population.

Daly City is now included in the First Supervisorial District along with South San Francisco, San Bruno, Broadmoor and Colma.

Under the new plan, Daly City would be included with Broadmoor and Pacifica into the Coastside district. The realignment would give the new district 18 per cent of the total county population, compared to less than five per cent for the present Coastside District.

Under the new plan, the present Fifth District, which includes Millbrae and Burlingame, would also include Hillsborough and become the Second District.

The new plan takes cognizance of the tremendous increase in population which has occurred in Daly City since the 1940's. By equalizing representation in all districts, the people will have better representation from their own supervisors.

This new plan will give Daly City a dominant role in the district, as the bulk of the population resides here, and consequently a stronger voice in county affairs, which has been sadly lacking in recent years.

Business Is The Motor

Because of our affluency, Charles H. Brower, president of BBDO, told the NAM's 67th Annual Congress of American Industry: "We wander ashamed through the wildeness of our success." To find a scapegoat, we have asked: "Who invented the cars, and built the roads, and developed mass production, and brought the bathroom indoors, and packaged the food, and developed the distribution, and raised the pay, and shortened the hours, and lighted our homes, and sat us before the TV set? Who stole the scrubbing brush and the washboard from our wives? Who is guilty? Business is guilty."

To "sell America back to the Americans," Mr. Brower would first "lift the hood on our ecenomy . . . point out that the motor is called 'business,' and that only the most upper-level economists would ever claim that the car would run better if we abandoned the motor and tried to run it on the air in its tires."

The Brower slogan: "Business means America —America means business."

A Reasonable Tax Cut

President Kennedy is still pushing for a 1963 tax cut, he told his press conference, despite the well-aired views of Chairman Wilbur Mills of the House Ways and Means Committee that there's no need to hurry. He and Representative Mills, he indicated, might no be "so far apart." But there has been no report on a meeting of the two afterward.

If President Kennedy wants action, and tax reform, too — as he says he does — and if Chairman Mills would take it easy, there's an out for both of them in the bipartisan, step-at-a-time five year progressive tax cutting and tax reform Herlong-Baker Bill.

It's conservative. It's constructive. It would stimulate business, ease capital, soothe the hip-pocket pains of the average taxpayer. And — it's ready to go!

Last week one of the classes from the Colma K-6 school took a tour of our printing plant at the Times and Record. We had fun showing them the equipment and answering questions. We were most pleased to receive a package in the mail a few days later with large "Christmas cards" the children had drawn and colored, along with their thanks for the tour.

The View From ..Behind The Badge

Written and Edited by Daly City Police Department

Meeting the people . . .

You go into people's homes all year long, and sometimes you are welcome and, indeed, invited to those places. Other times you are uninvited and unwelcome, and you enter, legally, anyway in the course of your duties.

You find that most of the abodes have a certain uniformity of possessions. A Westlake ranch style house and a Mission street apartment will both have television sets included among the furnishings, for example.

Regardless of the upkeep of the abode, or of the state of house-cleaning, or of the relative worth of the articles, you know from experience that most living quarters have like-type items in them.

Holiday moods . . .

So you go to this one house, in the course of your duties, and you enter. You are mildly surprised. Here is what looks like a "semi-typical" family in one of the so-called "better" neighborhoods.

A man and a wife and two children make up the family. The man works in a responsible, well-paying position. There are not, as there are in so many homes at this time of the year, any festive decorations, or a Christmas tree, or other such items.

This allone does not make the family different from others, for it could be that they are of a non-Christian faith. But you note that there are other differences in this house.

The celluloir jungle . . .

You speak with the man of the house and ask permission to look around. He demands a search warrant. You produce a search warrant for him to read; and you search.

You find stolen property, and forged checks, and you find 14 reels of pornographic motion picture film.

You also locate a quantity of descriptive title and price brochures, for use in advertising and showing the immoral movies.

Paperwork . . .

You arrest the man and book him. You seize the property. Because the policeman is perennially open to charges of theft and misuse of property, you are most careful in the handling of the property.

The suspect and you itemize said property, and you issue him an itemized receipt for it all. Then you write your reports, and you elicit from the man a detailed tape recorded statement in which he speaks of the checks and the film, and the like.

You meticulously mark, list, and store each reel of film, as well as the other property.

You lock the man up.

The critics . . .

You and the other investigaators review the films against the possibility of testifying as to their pornographic content. You are not a prude, but you find the work difficult. Adult fare movies are one thing, but staged an contrived depravity is quite another. You do not like the task.

Pyramid Club . . .

Bad checks are a continuing, persistently implemented method used by thieves to separate the merchant from his money. Detective La Bruzzo has been fighting this battle on behalf of the victims for a number of years.

He has studied a method now in use in the Oakland area, and it seems, that with some modifications, it might work here. The idea is to prevent some of this thieving by means of a check warning system.

As the reader will note, these paragraphs are not about Pyramid Clubs, which are against the law. We are speaking of a pyramid structure kind of organization, however.

In short, if enough merchants show sufficient interest, a check warning system could be employed by use of the telephone. A warning that a certain check-passing method is being used in the area at the moment would be passed to member firms. Each member would have the responsibility of phoning another member or two, so that the entire area would be warned in a mater of minutes. Control would be effected from the police department.

Individual merchants who are interested should contact La Bruzzo at the detective division, Daly City police department.

The department will be happy to send a man to the meeting of any interested merchants' association or group that might desire a more detailed explanation of the system.

The system will be put into effect if and when a sufficient number of merchants express their interest to the department. Calls or written communicaions should be made direct to Detective La Bruzzo at the City Hall, 75 Wellington avenue, or PL 5-4212, extension 13.

247....248....249....and on and on and on. You could be one of the above digits. On the surface they are just numbers and don't convey much meaning, extract no sentiments and leave no impression at all.

But let us explore deeper into this rather obscure number. Take number 248 for example. Number 248 could be a Westlake resident or your neighbor, or even you. He could have a nice wife, three lovely children and be active in the social affairs of his community.

Let us pick up number 248 on New Year's Eve at a very swinging party. At this juncture in the story he is not known as 248, but we will substitute the number for his name for obvious reasons.

It is the usual New Year's party at a friend's house. Now 248 isn't much of a drinker, and usually doesn't indulge. This night, however, is different from all of the rest and it seems like the night to let his hair down.

"Hey 248, don't you think you have had enough?" a friend bellows at him over the din of the gaiety.

"Naw, I am really going to do it up big tonight," he answers with a loud cackle.

The party continues and our brash hero continues to pour down the liquid refreshments like prohibition is returning at the stroke of midnight. He becomes very overt in his actions, dancing on the couches with a lampshade and cane. Oh man, he is a real riot. All of the other guests encourage him and reward his antics with drinks of the finest liquor.

Man it is a real first class stage show, and our hero keeps getting dizzier and funnier and dizzier. Unfortunately he doesn't reach the point of helplessness. About an hour after midnight he decides that he is very tired and it is time to go home.

It is a very foggy night in Westlake and the streets are a little slippery. Somebody issues a warning to him as he bids the host good-bye, but he is in far too happy mood to have it mean anything.

Number 248 slides behind the wheel and takes off through the streets of Westlake. The fog is thick but he is in a very confident mood and tells his wife that he can navigate the streets with a blindfold.

His foot presses heavily on the gas pedal and the new model sedan leaps forward. At an intersection he decides at the last moment that this is where he is supposed to turn. A combination of dull reflexes, speed and slippery streets whip the auto out of control.

He frantically tries to straighten it out. His wife shrieks. He jerks the wheel and the car swerves to the other side. His foot gets tangled in the accelerator and the car careens across the street, glances off a parked car and heads toward a utility pole. There is half of a noise, he sees his wife's face, nears the yell of his loving children, a blinding hot flash. Thousands of needles sink into number 248's head and he feels a hot searing liquid and then nothing.

The Daly City police department is on the scene minutes later. "The woman is in pretty bad shape," says one officer. "How is the man?"

The blue-coated man peers over the broken form on the street and answers solemnly. "He is number 248 for the weekend."

And so it goes! ...250...251...252...253. Yes, more than 400 fatalities are predicted for the New Year weekend.

And then there is the story of the lady of Brownie Troop 65 who tells a very touching story about the citizens of Daly City.

It seems that her group of girls, replete with heavy accordion, trekked for several miles up Hillside boulevard caroling for the residents of the area.

How many compliments did they get? Nary a one. It seems that the people either peeked behind curtains, shut off their lights or ran into the house. A rather strange way to act at Christmas time.

Pretty discouraged, the girls stopped in a supermarket. To top things off, an ungentlemanly gentleman asked them "how much they wanted?"

The disillusioned girls began to sob and now wonder what kind of people make up Christmas. Are there that many Scrooges hiding out in Daly City?

SENATOR ENGLE ANNOUNCES ELECTRIC POWER LINE PLAN

Senator Clair Engle (California Democrat) announced this week that he will promote legislation in the next Congress to assure full public and private utilization of high voltage electric power lines that involve interstate operations.

Senator Engle said: "We have reached the point in the technology of moving elecric power where transmission grids are just as important and has just as much impact nationally upon the widespread utilization of our electric resources as does the construction and operation of the power plants themselves."

Senator Engle emphasized that the bill he proposes would not prevent private utilities from constructing inter-regional power lines. It would provide only for Federal Power Commission (FPC) regulation in order to protect the public interest in major electric interties so that they can be operated as common carriers.

The FPC presently has authority only with respect to the construction and operation of power plants but not with respect to transmission lines.

Similar transmission legislation was introduced late in the last Congress by Senator Engle (S. 3432) and by Congressman John Moss (H. R. 12181) but was not acted upon before adjournment.

The new bill would amend the Federal Power Act to grant the FPC authority to require Certificates of Necessity and Convenience as a condition to the construction and operation of extra high voltage lines for transmitting electricity in interstate commerce at normal voltages in excess of 230,000 volts.

Senator Engle pointed out that 18 electric utilities in the northeastern United States recently announced plans for a seven-state power pool to be interconnected with a 350 million dollar extra high voltage transmission grid.

"This is good," Senator Engle said. "But such a pool ought to be open to all power producers public and private. The grid ought to be a common carrier."

Similar plans are being developed for the interconnection of power systems on the Pacific Coast, beginning with a proposed common carrier intertie between the Bonneville Power Administration network in the northwest states and the Central Valley power system in California.

Senator Engle said new techniques make it possible to economically transmit large quantities of electric power at extra high voltages for distances of 1,000 miles or more.

Letters To The Editor

Dear Editor:

TRUST

"War and peace" is an old tale. It is the same story today only the names have been changed.

What causes war?

Is it greed, conflicting ideas, lust, self-pity, the economic picture, or dis-belief in something?

Maybe war is caused by all these things, plus even other things.

Can we have "World Peace?"

Men, during the ages, have tried to make peace. And they have succeeded. Trustingly, they have succeeded to great lengths.

Who did they trust?

Many things have been written, as history tells us. They say that a single word represents a thought or part of one.

The miracle of communication. There is a communication of old:

St. Mark 10:27: "And Jesus looking upon them saith, with men it is impossible, but not with God: for with God all things are possible."

Who do you trust?

What do you trust?

I believe everyone that wants the maintenance of "World Peace" should support the church and the United Nations.

VICTOR PETERSON.

My dear sir,

I speak for all of our youngsters when I thank you and your associates for your interest and support during the past year.

The Record has been good to us, in that our activities in behalf of homeless youngsters have been publicized. Since Hanna Center is supported principally by voluntary contributions from Californians, this recognition means a great deal to us, and will help us toward our goal of accepting additional homeless boys.

Please visit the Center at your first opportunity. You will always be welcome at the Boys Town of the West.

Sincerely,
Rt. Rev.

MEN IN SERVICE

Marine Air Reservist Gets Active Duty Call

Newly enlisted Marine Air Reserve Private Stanley Kouches, son of Mr. and Mrs. Peter Kouches, 69 Stratford Dr., Park Merced, departed from the Oakland Airport Sunday, Dec. 16, 1962. He will start six months of active duty training with the Marine Reserve upon his arrival at the Marine Corps Recruit Depot, San Diego.

Kouches can expect to receive approximately 11 weeks of recruit training before being assigned to the Naval Air Station at either Memphis, Tenn., or Jacksonville, Fla.

His assignment to Memphis or Jacksonville will cover the period of training in the Aviation Fundamentals Course. This course is the foundation upon which all future training will be based.

Upon his return to Alameda six months from now, Kouches will drill with his reserve squadron one weekend each month, and for an annual two week period of active duty at a Marine Corps Air Station.

Kouches is interrupting a double career to complete his military obligation. He has two years on a Law major at City College, and, in addition, works as a mechanic for United Airlines an San Francisco's International Airport.

From Guam Service Colma Sailor Home

Robert S. Braun, construction man, USN, son of Mr. and Mrs. Joe Braun of 408 38th street in Colma, returned to Port Hueneme, Calif., on December 20, with Mobile Construction Battalion Five.

The battalion has spent more than four months on Guam, where they constructed housing, waterfront works and a garage on the Naval Station.

During their tour of duty on Guam, the mid-Pacific island territory was devastated by Typhoon Karen, which destroyed about 90 per cent of the military facilities.

Seabees cleared debris, restored power and communications, and built emergency housing facilities for the citizens.

CARE Contributions Are Tax Deductible

The regional CARE office issued a year-end reminder today that contributions to CARE for overseas aid are federal income tax deductible.

Donations to CARE's Food Crusade or the Self-Help Program for tools of self-support, health and education as well as MEDICO may be made to help those in the newly emerging nations of Central and South America, the Middle East, Europe, Southeast Asia and Africa.

Tom Perry, Regional CARE Director, asked individuals and organizations considering a charitable gift to remember CARE with a year end contribution to help refugees and other needy people overseas.

Receipts are issued for all donations and all CARE packages are duty free with delivery guaranteed, the CARE spokesman said.

Further information on CARE programs may be obtained by contacting the CARE office for Northern California and Nevada at 444 Market Street, San Francisco.

Survey Reveals Highway Travel Shows Increases

Motor vehicle travel in the United States rose in 1961 and has surpassed those figures so far in 1962, according to the U. S. Bureau of Public Roads. In 1961, vehicular traffic totalled 737.5 billion vehicle miles, an increase of 2.6 per cent over 1960.

Total travel for the first 10 months of 1962 is estimated at 767 billion vehicle miles, a 4 per cent increase over 1961. Passenger cars represented 84 per cent of the vehicles and accounted for 82 per cent of the 1961 travel. Trucks and truck combinations accounted for 16 per cent of the vehicles and 117 per cent of the travel. Figures for buses were less than one per cent.

Figures showed that the average motor vehicle travelled 9,648 miles in 1961, almost half of it in cities, and consumed 776 gallons of fuel at 12.44 miles a gallon. The average passenger car travelled 9,465 miles and consumed 658 gallons of fuel at a rate of 14.38 miles a gallon.

Holiday Deaths

Forty-five persons were fatally injured in California during the 78-hour period between p. m., December 29, and midnight, Jan. 1, 1962, according to the California highway patrol.

Of these, 26 were killed in the unincorporated areas, and 19 in incorporated cities. The patrol made 211 arrests for drunk driving violations during the period.

The patrol made 11,042 arrests for other moving violations during the period.

Studebaker Offers Five-Speed Gearbox On Pickup Trucks

Studebaker Corp. has announced it will offer an optional five-speed floor-shift transmission on all V-8 Champion half-ton and 3/4-ton pickup trucks.

L. E. Minkel, marketing vice-president, said he believes this is the first time such transmission has been offered as factory equipment on a pickup truck.

"Our surveys show that many pickup-truck users need this kind of transmission for both off-highway use, particularly in sandy or other soft surfaces, and high-speed cruising on the highway," Minkel said.

Gear ratios are 6.06 to 1 in low gear; 3.32 to 1 in second; 1.85 to 1 in third; 1 to 1 in fourth and 0.82 to 1 in the overdrive fifth gear.

Minkel said the transmission was designed to fit the needs of sportsmen, rangers, oil and mineral prospectors and other off-highway operations.

Prizes for Salesmen — 1928 . . .

IDEAS FROM THE PAST

Special prizes for the three new-car salesmen selling the most accessories during the month practically doubled the volume of accessory sales during a three-month period in 1928 for Central Chevrolet Company of Houston, Texas.

The owners of the dealership found the new-car salesmen to be the best sources for accessory sales. Most of the merchandise was sold through actual demonstrations on the new cars in the showroom.

Members of the sales staff were encouraged to increase the initial selling price of each new car by at least $50 through accessory sales.

On January 1, Social Security taxes will rise once more. Both employees and employers will pay at the rate of 3⅝ per cent on earnings to $4,800. The self-employed rate will be 5.4 per cent on earnings to that figure. Additional increases are scheduled, by law, for 1966 and 1968.

Government subsidy to competitors has created a surplus capacity in the nation's railroad system, according to a vice president of the Pennsylvania railroad. In his view, the problem "can only be met by the rearrangement of railroad plant and operations through mergers."
